Senate Passes Blaine's Income Tax Bill, 19 To 14

Measure Now Up To Lower House

Passage Follows Long Night Session With Surprises in Vote Switching

IS SOCIALIST DOCUMENT

Repeals Personal Property Off-set, Increases Exemptions, Reapportions Tax

BULLETIN
Madison — Assembly conservatives Thursday opened their assault on the income tax bill and drew the fire of the progressives and Socialists. The discussion developed on a resolution by William Olson to change the rule of taxation to permit classification of property.

The income tax bill was received in the lower house from the Senate Wednesday and was referred to the taxation committee. The committee agreed to consider it in executive session Thursday. The bill probably will be reported favorably and placed on Wednesday's calendar, Mr. Duncan, a member of the committee said.

Madison — After a trying ordeal in the state senate where the result had been in doubt several times in the past two weeks, the administration-Socialist income tax bill, has left the unfriendly environment of the senate and now seeks passage in the assembly. The bill was passed in the senate Wednesday night 19 to 14, following several hours of debate. The voting was marked by one surprise, that of the ballot of Senator George Staudenmayer of Portage who earlier in the day deserted the administration ranks, voted against enactment of the bill and announced he could not vote for the passage of the bill.

In the final test Senator Staudenmayer rejoined the administration forces. The senator explained his vote on the floor by saying while he did not approve of the measure in several of its component parts, he believed the bill was of some benefit to the people, and therefore cast his lot with it.

Senator Herman Bilgrien who heretofore had been classed as an opponent of the bill also cast his vote for it, but his action came as no surprise as he had voted for enactment of the bill during the morning session.

HOW THEY VOTED
The senate voted as follows:
For the bill: Barker, Barber, Bilgrien, Carroll, Cashman, Chase, Englund, Garey, Heck, Hunt, Johnson, Kemp, Koppel, Padway, Polakowski, Quick, Sauthoff, Staudenmayer, Tesdale—10.

Against the bill: Boldt, Casperson, Daggett, Gettelman, Hull, Lange, Michigan, Morris, Roethe, Schuman, Severson, Smith, Titus, White—14.

Sensors Johnson, Garey, Heck, Padway and Quick spoke for the bill, and Senators Morris, Casperson, Daggett, Lange, Schumann, Smith and Titus against it.

The bill has passed and messaged to assembly is for the most part a Socialist document, the original proponents having adopted a number of amendments proposed by Socialist members of the senate or made important concessions which have entirely changed the face of the bill.

Under the tax bill the points of difference from the present law were reduced virtually to three. They were repeal of the personal property off-set, increase of the individual exemptions and readjustment of the apportionment of revenues.

The increase in exemptions for heads of families from $1,200 to $1,600 and from $200 to $300 for dependents was added to the bill under an administration amendment, to meet with the Socialists' demands.

The apportionment was changed finally to 50 per cent for the communities, 40 per cent for the state and 10 per cent for the counties, after various proposals in this regard had been rejected. The division in the present law is 70 per cent to the communities, 20 to the counties and 10 to the state. Administration leaders explained that the increase in the state's share would apply on the special mill taxes for educational purposes and declared that none of the increase would be added to other state funds.

DETECTIVES WILL NEED LICENSE TO OPERATE IN STATE

Under Bill Passed in Senate Sleuths Must Have Police Board Approval

By Associated Press
Madison—The state senate Thursday passed without record vote the Padway bill which requires all owners of private detective agencies and all operatives to obtain state licenses to operate in Wisconsin. The vote on engrossment was 19 to 14, and that on passage was nearly unanimous.

The bill repeals the present law regarding private detectives and creates a new section providing that no person shall act as a detective unless he shall have obtained a license from and filed a bond with the secretary of state. The application for such a license must have the approval of fire and police commissions of cities where the detectives expect to operate. It also provides for revocation of licenses under certain conditions.

The senate passed unanimously the highway committee bill to correct the motor fuel tax bill to take care of the unfinished state money to be used in matching federal aid appropriation in the fiscal year, 1925.

10,000 MADE HOMELESS BY BIG FIRE AT TOKIO
By Associated Press
Tokio — The hand of horror and devastation gripped Tokio Thursday as the result of fire that swept over the northeastern section of the city and left thousands homeless in its wake.

Starting in a factory at Nanpori Junction, the blaze burned its way like wildfire in a southwesterly direction consuming wooden homes like so much tinder. When the flames were reported consumed late Wednesday night, 2,000 houses had been destroyed, 200 persons were reported injured, and 10,000 refugees were depending on the aid of other sections of Tokio for shelter. Scenes incident to the major earthquake and fire at Tokio in 1923 were being repeated Thursday when construction of a barracks to house victims of the fire was begun.

WHEAT PROBE WILL COVER ALL EXCHANGES OF NATION

Washington, D. C.—Instructions to examine the books and trading records of all grain exchanges in the country and those of a number of large brokers were sent Thursday by Secretary Jardine to field agents of the grain futures administration.

The action constituted the agriculture department's first step in the investigation of causes of recent violent fluctuations in the price of wheat. The orders went to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and other points.

Shares Fate Awaits Trial of Scientist Husband

Here is Mrs. Charles C. Fairman of Chicago, whose husband was indicted with William Shepherd for the death of William McClinch after he had confessed supplying germs to Shepherd with intent to kill.

SHEPHERD WAITS IN LEOPOLD CELL AS QUIZ GOES ON

Prosecutors Work on Theory Death Germs Were Gotten from Health Department

Chicago — William D. Shepherd, foster father of William McClinch, orphan millionaire, today occupied the same county jail cell in which Nathan Leopold, Jr., awaited trial nine months ago for killing Robert Franks, while prosecutors investigated a theory that the typhoid germs he is accused of giving McClinch to kill him may have come from the city health department.

They established a connection between two health department employees and the National University of Sciences, whose head, Charles C. Fairman, named with Shepherd in the indictment charging McClinch's murder, said he gave the germs to Shepherd, for administration to McClinch. Temporarily denied freedom on bail, Shepherd was taken to the county jail late Wednesday afternoon.

Possible exhumation not only of the body of young McClinch, but also those of Mrs. Emma Nelson McClinch, his mother, who died 10 years ago, and Dr. Oscar Olson, a friend of the family and brother of Harry Olson, chief justice of the municipal court and instigator of the McClinch orphan's death inquiry, was indicated by state's authorities.

Close Of Special Session Of Senate Was Stormy One

Washington, D. C.—Memorable for its breach with the White House over the Warren nomination, the special session of the senate which convened March 4, had passed Thursday after pursuing its turbulent way to the very closing hours.

With the senate's adjournment sine die Wednesday congress has closed its doors until the convening of the regular session on the first Monday in December unless called in special session. Of this President Coolidge has indicated no intention.

The senate finished off the record of its session Wednesday by again standing on its opinion with respect to a presidential nomination refusing as in the case of Charles H. Warren, to be attorney general, to give its approval to the resubmitted nomination of Thomas F. Woodlock of New York to be a member of the interstate commerce commission. Sent by the president again Wednesday after it had failed of confirmation at the last session, the nomination was referred to the interstate commerce committee which did not even meet to consider it.

The president is expected by his close friends to give Mr. Woodlock a recess appointment.

WARREN DRAMA PRODUCED NEW SENATE LEADER

Borah Has Real Control With Liberals and Democrats to Support Him

DOUSTER NOT EFFECTIVE

Coolidge Cannot Be Sure of Legislative Program During Next Two Years

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1925, by Post Pub. Co., Washington, D. C.—The United States senate, departing with a feeling that it has disposed of a controversy and maintained its rights.

The unanimous vote on the confirmation of John G. Sargent to be attorney general was intended to show President Coolidge that no motive of partisanship lay behind the recent rejection of Mr. Warren's name. The senate accepted without question Mr. Coolidge's appointment of his close personal friend. That has been the custom in the past in almost every case. The Warren case simply involved objections and the evidence, trust connections and the evidence, was largely in Mr. Warren's own letters as read into the record of congressional investigating committees.

WON FRIENDS
The senators who fought Warren would have confirmed almost anyone else without question. They hesitated about Harlan F. Stone for a little while only but confirmed him for the supreme bench almost by a unanimous vote for there was nothing objectionable in his record; in fact his very independence of politics and his willingness to go before the senate judiciary committee won him friends.

The Warren episode, however, has created an unexpected situation. Here at the very outset of the Coolidge administration a coalition of Democrats, western Republicans and independents took control of the senate. This means that Mr. Coolidge's conservatism will have to run the gauntlet of a combined opposition in the next congress. It means that the real leader of the senate is William E. Borah of Idaho and that men like Norris of Nebraska, Hiram Johnson of California, Howell of Nebraska, Clegg of Michigan, McMaster and Norbeck of South Dakota, all elected on the regular republican ticket by large majorities still consider themselves not far apart from the men who were "disciplined"—Brookhart of Iowa, Ladd and Frazier of North Dakota, and La Follette of Wisconsin.

GET SUPPORT
The foregoing group would not be powerful without the aid of the Democrats but they have a way of persuading the Democrats to go along with them. There are conservative Democrats who do not like the coalition idea but the majority of the Democrats consider themselves as liberal as the Republican group mentioned above which is rebelling against the regular Republican leadership.

RESCUERS FAIL IN DAY'S SEARCH FOR ENTOMBED MINERS

Mine Is Penetrated 4,000 Feet, but There Is Little Hope of Saving Men

By Associated Press
Fairmont, W. Va.—Fireless rescue workers continued their struggle on Thursday to reach the 34 miners entombed by a terrific explosion that Tuesday night wrecked mine 41 of the Bethlehem Mines corporation at Barre, Pa., three miles from here. Late Wednesday night the mine had been penetrated more than 4,000 feet. No bodies had been found, nor were there indications that any of the men caught far in the workings were alive.

Hope that some of the entombed men may be reached has not been abandoned, but it is the belief of experienced mining men that those in the property at the time of the explosion have perished.

R. M. Lambie, chief of the West Virginia department of mines, announced Wednesday night after a trip into the mine with a rescue crew that fire was burning in the right heading. He said the flames probably would be confined to a small area. Twenty-two men are believed to have been trapped in this heading and twelve in the left heading.

Whole Towns Wiped Off Map By Wind And Fire

Children Buried Under Wreckage of Schools Destroyed by Wind

FIRE ADDS TO TERRORS

Death List Grows as Rescuers Dig into Debris of Wrecked Towns

Murphysboro, Ill.—One hundred and fifty-two bodies have already been recovered and from 100 to 150 more are believed to have been killed while 250 persons are in emergency hospitals, suffering from serious injuries, according to the provisional compilation made here Thursday morning.

The devastated area, covers an area about three fourths of a mile in width. The Mobile and Ohio railroad shops were destroyed. Approximately 35 persons were killed and upwards of 200 injured when the building collapsed.

The Logan school was blown to pieces and also the Longfellow school. The township school was badly damaged. Eighty-five pupils of the Logan school were reported to have been killed, six are believed to have lost their lives in the collapse of the Longfellow school and the same number in the destruction of the Township school.

Building in the business district were destroyed by either wind or fire.

The storm dropped down without warning. An hour before the tornado hit, the bright sun was shining. About five minutes before the twisted appeared rain began falling. And then the terrific wind. Estimates Thursday placed the number of dead at about 100 and the injured upwards of one thousand, including those less seriously hurt.

Sweeping across the Mississippi from the lower section of Missouri, the hurricane invaded Illinois at Benton Harbor, Mich., a fire Thursday morning practically gutted the interior of the main school building at Hartford, Van Buren Co., 20 miles north of here. The building houses all eight primary grades and the high school. The estimated damage is $20,000. Firemen were handicapped by the storm in fighting the blaze, which started in the boiler room and swept to the floors above. The building houses 324 pupils during school hours.

Wealth Makes Bed With Poverty After Big Fire

Palm Beach, Fla.—More than $4,000,000 worth of property lay in ruins here Thursday after the first of West Palm Beach. Others of the several thousand persons rendered homeless by the fire were quartered in other hotels and private homes of the city. Less happily quartered were 23 persons, most of them negroes, arrested on charges of looting after the fire, while thousands of dollars of jewelry, money and clothing they were alleged to have stolen was being guarded by police.

In the neighborhood of the graying heap marking the site of the Palm Beach hotel guards were stationed to prevent a heap of furniture, furniture and other articles valued at approximately $50,000. Other guards comprising members of the Florida National guard patrolled highways of the county in an effort to recover other property alleged to have been stolen from the two hotels during the conflagration.

Cal Orders Red Cross To Illinois

Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge, who is president of the American Red Cross Thursday suggested to Chairman John Barton Payne that all of the facilities of the organization be put into operation to relieve storm sufferers in the middle west.

"Information has reached me," he said in a communication made public at the Red Cross headquarters, "of the disaster that has overtaken a portion of Missouri, Illinois and Indiana."

"It is said that many people are homeless and many are injured. I suggest that you put into operation all the facilities of the Red Cross, to assist in the required relief. I am sending a telegram to the governor of Illinois that you will do so."

GUARDS ON WAY
Springfield, Mo.—Detachments of the Illinois National guard from eight Illinois cities have been ordered to the storm zone and an order directing the 10th medical regiment of Chicago, probably will follow shortly. Adjutant General Black announced Thursday morning. Supplies of tent hospitals and supplies have also been ordered taken to West Frankfort and Murphysboro, as concentration points.

TEAPOT DOME LEASE WAS CONCEALED ON PURPOSE

By Associated Press
Cheyenne, Wyo.—The leasing of Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair was deliberately concealed from congress and the public, according to testimony read at the naval oil lease annulment suit here Thursday from the deposition of Rear Admiral J. K. Robison, chief of navy engineering.

"We concealed what was being done in the Wyoming reserve because we wanted to get it done," Admiral Robison said in cross-examination conducted by Owen J. Roberts of government counsel.

Hundreds of Dead and Injured Still Buried Under Smashed Homes

10,000 MADE HOMELESS

Illinois and Missouri Legislatures Vote Aid for Suffering People

Dead estimated at 500 to 1,000.

Injured estimated at 2,500 to 3,000.

Homeless estimated at 8,000 to 10,000.

A mid-afternoon tornado, the worst hour to strike, when children were packed in schools and workers in store and shops, Wednesday's storm in five mid-western states still held many victims buried and unreported Thursday afternoon.

Where it did the worst damage, the tornado lasted less than five minutes.

It flattened heavily constructed school and business buildings with worse results than the casualties in lighter dwellings.

Babies in homes were especially sufferers.

Fires still raging or smoldering and millions of dollars worth of wreckage delayed counts of the larger death lists.

The hardest hit places were three small cities in southern Illinois, West Frankfort, Murphysboro and Carbondale.

Nearly all the destruction was in the soft coal fields.

Next to Illinois, the worst sufferers were in Indiana and Missouri, with fatal echoes of the twister coming from Tennessee and Kentucky.

Red Cross, state guardsmen, army aviation forces, railroad resources piled into many special trains, and private relief from two of the nation's largest cities, Chicago and St. Louis, with a host of contributions from smaller cities are concentrated in southern Illinois.

Two towns in the wake of the tornado were reported to have been virtually erased from the map while large sections of another were laid to ruins. But one home and a school house were the remaining structures in the village of Parrish, in Franklin Co., Ill. The four dwellings left standing at Griffin, Posey Co., Ind., a aged. One hundred city blocks at Murphysboro were practically flattened. Seventy blocks in the residential section were swept by flames.

Setting a record for swift legislation, the members of the Illinois legislature and those in the Missouri assembly respectively pushed forward measures appropriating $500,000 and $25,000 for relief in their devastated sections. The Illinois sum will be available next Wednesday, the earliest possible. Governor Small of Illinois and a staff left for the storm area Tuesday night to see the damage and to gather first hand information of the disaster.

In the stricken district in southern Illinois the storm took its toll in several places in less than five minutes. A beamman on an Illinois central train who witnessed the tragedy at Osoto, pictured it thus:

"Crash of thunder, preceded by two blinding flashes of lightning after which there was nothing left of the town."

That miners in many of the coal districts which were in the path of the storm in this catastrophe were saved.

GOODLAND VETOES BRIDGE TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

NO NECESSITY FOR LAW ON CHERRY-ST, MAYOR POINTS OUT

Ordinance to Prohibit Cars Passing Each Other on Bridges Is Wiped Out

Mayor John Goodland, Jr. exercised the veto on an ordinance Wednesday night for the first time during his administration, and the council sustained him by a unanimous vote.

The veto was on the ordinance passed at the previous regular meeting regulating traffic on Appleton bridges. Under the provisions of that measure it was declared illegal for any vehicle to pass a motor vehicle going in the same direction over any bridge.

That the mayor might take the action he did was foreshadowed at the March 4 meeting when he objected to including Cherry-st bridge in the measure. He reiterated Wednesday night that the bridge is sufficiently wide to allow four lines of traffic and as such needs no legislation for traffic legislation as provided in the ordinance. Several aldermen supported the mayor at the previous meeting, although they admitted that narrow bridges such as E. Johnson and S. Oneida street structures might require the regulation intended.

MAY TRY AGAIN

Alderman George T. Richard of the Third ward moved to sustain the mayor's veto, and the motion carried without a dissenting vote. Mr. Richard, who is chairman of the ordinance committee, made no announcement as to whether the measure would come up again in modified form to exempt Cherry-st bridge.

Two more ordinances were passed by the council and a movement was started to amend the zoning ordinance. The council adopted an amendment to the arterial highway ordinance which makes S. Cherry-st, from the bridge to College-ave, and N. Richmond-st, from College-ave to the north city limits, arterial highways.

Passage of a new walk obstruction ordinance was completed. It is stricter in scope than a previous ordinance on the same subject and provides a penalty of fines ranging from $5 to $200 for displaying merchandise on sidewalks. In default of payment of fines violators are subjected to imprisonment in the county jail from 30 days to 6 months. Mayor Goodland considered the minimum sentence of 30 days too severe, but Alderman Richard pointed out that a jail sentence would be imposed only in the event that the fines were not paid.

Residents of the Fifth ward petitioned the council for an amendment to the zoning ordinance whereby block 73 would be made a part of the commercial and light manufacturing district instead of residence district. It was set forth in the petition that the block is more suitable for business establishments than residences, and that the property owners desired to dispose of the holdings for business purposes. Alderman Charles Foss of the Fifth ward mentioned that the board of appeals had considered the petition and refused to take action. It was referred by the council to the city plan commission.

RADIO UNSTABLE. INVESTORS TOLD

Patent Litigation and General Restlessness Depresses Market

Despite marvelous financial strides made last year by radio manufacturers, there's a warning in the air. The warning advises caution on the part of would-be investors against sinking money thoughtlessly into radio stocks even of the most successful and most popular radio enterprises. It is based on signs of unrest in this infant industry, of revolt among certain manufacturers and of instability in the radio patent situation.

These signs have already appeared above the surface in the matter of Hazeltine stock. Professor Hazeltine now controls the neodymium patent, but the Radio Corporation of America and others are suing his organization for alleged infringement of some of their basic patents, while A. H. Grebe, another manufacturer, actually denies Hazeltine's right to the neodymium patent.

STOCK DOWN

The effect has been noticed on the stock exchange. Hazeltine stock has been falling rapidly with only an occasional burst upward. Prominent stock brokers dealing in radio securities, advise investors against touching this stock. It is in the doubtful class.

Yet last year, the 14 licensees of the Hazeltine Corporation reported a gross business amounting to $12,392,480, compared with $1,647,351 for 1923, that is an increase of almost 800 per cent!

Royalties out of this income, going to Hazeltine and his associates, amounted to $440,154.52 last year.

RADIO CORPORATION

Radio Corporation also reports a marvelous year last year. Progress is shown in radio receiver sales, in broadcasting and in various commercial enterprises throughout the world.

Last year's total gross income for this company is reported as $54,845,131, against $26,394,749 in 1923, an increase of more than 100 per cent. The 1924 net income is given as $5,

$2,200 TAXES ARE ORDERED CANCELED

Assessor Explains How Mistakes Creep into Assessment Rolls

Tax cancellations of $1,577.35 and rebates of $365.60, were ordered by the common council at its meeting Wednesday evening, following a report of the committee on rebate headed by Alderman H. R. Beske of the Sixth ward.

Some of the cancellations were on real and personal property assessed by mistake, or doubly assessed, and on special assessments for street cleaning taxes. Most of the tax relates also affected properties abutting on cindered streets, some of the property owners having been assessed for work performed by their predecessors. About four claims for cancellations or rebates were disallowed.

"That's a pretty big sum to cancel," was the comment of Mayor Goodland. "There are altogether too many mistakes made in the assessments. The city has already been set back about $3,200 in this way. There should be a more careful checkup on assessments, as this makes it harder for the council to work."

A. C. Rule, city assessor, declared in an interview after the meeting that it is unfair to criticize his work without giving him an opportunity to be heard.

"Cancellation of taxes becomes necessary in every city, for mistakes will creep in," he said. "The new home-stead exemption law and other legislation are responsible for some of the errors."

Assessing of automobiles also leads to occasional errors, he pointed out. Automobiles are assessable as of May 1, and when a car is purchased after that date, it escapes taxation in this locality at least. The presence of a car in the garage sometimes leads to its assessments by mistake. If the owner of a car removes to a new location after the car has been assessed and then sends the assessment card to the assessor, another, or a double assessment is possible, but which can be corrected by the car owner at tax time, Mr. Rule declared.

Otto Harp, Herbert Schroeder and Louis Springstroh, town of Center, left Wednesday morning for the Dakotas in Mr. Springstroh's car. They will visit relatives there and expect to remain if they can find employment.

DRAMA ART CLASS GIVES THREE PLAYS

The three one act plays to be presented by the college dramatic art class under the direction of Prof. F. W. Orr Friday night and Saturday afternoon promises not only excellence in playing, but also unusual effects in setting and lighting.

A drapery set will be used in all the plays, but lighting effects will transform them into seemingly many different sets. All work is being done by members in the class.

"It is really the Little Theater movement in the college," Prof. Orr declared, "and the stage of the Phoenix room will be a Little Theater stage at this time. Because of the comparative smallness of the room and stage, we were able to try experiments impossible in a larger auditorium. In this way we have something different to offer."

The three plays are farce comedies, Huzen Henbest and J. Alden Behnke, Appleton, will present the play "The Constant Lover." In the cast of "Suppressed Desires" are Marie Finger, Appleton, as Mrs. Henrietta Brewster; Alden Behnke, Appleton,

Good-Bye Forever to the Garbage Can and Rubbish Barrel

That filthy back-yard garbage can is far more than an eyesore—it's a dangerous disease carrier. And how about the old rubbish barrel? It litters up your basement. Filled with paper and oily rags it invites fire and is a constant menace. The garbage can and rubbish barrel are both eliminated when the Home Gas Incinerator is installed. Garbage and trash quickly, easily, safely disposed of. Many big advantages. Let us fully explain them.

WANT NEW PAVING AT BASE OF HILL ON S. ONEIDA-ST

Deep Holes Make Traffic Dangerous—Probe Fourth District School Problem

Including a defective portion of the S. Oneida-st pavement between the S. Oneida-st bridge across the Fox River and the bridge across the Fox River Paper Co. canal, in the 1925 paving program was suggested by Mayor John Goodland Jr. to the city council at its meeting Wednesday night. The question was brought up by Alderman Robert McGilgan of the Fourth ward. Mr. McGilgan stated that the condition of the pavement was so bad as to be dangerous to traffic. Holes, some of them six inches in depth, he said, forced vehicles to drive on the sidewalk.

According to Mr. McGilgan and Alderman Smith, the street at this point has a concrete base. At one time it had been paved with asphalt coated wooden blocks. After these were worn away in spots, the holes were filled with screenings and cinders, but the water running down the hill continually washes this material away. During the wet seasons, Alderman McGilgan reported, it often becomes necessary to fill in the holes every two days.

SUGGEST BRICK PAVING
Mr. McGilgan's motion to have the matter referred to the street and bridge committee was made after a short discussion. Mayor Goodland then suggested that the committee consider paving the faulty spot with brick. R. M. Connelly, city engineer suggested that the sidewalk on one side of the street be removed to make more room for vehicles, but Mr. McGilgan was of the opinion that this would not be necessary because the Cherry-st bridge would remove much of the traffic from S. Oneida-st.

The motion provided that the street and bridge committee investigate the matter and report to the council at the next regular meeting on March 25.

The board of public works was named by Mayor Goodland as a committee to meet with the Fourth district school board to consider alterations planned on the district school. The board includes the mayor, A. C. Bossert, city attorney; R. M. Connelly, city engineer; E. L. Williams, city clerk; Alderman L. O. Hansen and Alderman C. D. Thompson.

WANT ADDITION
The Fourth district desires to erect an addition to serve as junior high school, but the expense estimated would be far in excess of the $20,000 allotted out of the junior high school bond issue.

The council voted to pay Mrs. Bliza Powell $150 for a quit claim deed to a strip of land 15 feet wide, purchased eight years ago to extend Seventh-st through to Jones park. At that time two strips were bought, one a part of property owned by E. G. Jones on one side, the other owned by Mrs. Powell on the opposite side. Mr. Jones received payment and delivered the deed, while the Powell deal was allowed to hang fire through an oversight. The action of the council finally disposes of the matter.

Action taken by the council on Sept. 3, regarding installation of sewers on Lenox and Douglas-sts was rescinded to permit adoption of new plans providing for sewer installations on the two streets named and on Vine-st. The new plan was adopted after the committee of the whole had withdrawn into the committee chamber to consider this and other measures. After its return the committee reported and the council also voted to refer the matter of replating Block 91, in the Third ward to the street committee and the plan commission. This block, according to Alderman George T. Richards, had never been subdivided into lots, and he introduced the motion to replat it.

WOULD WIDEN BRIDGE
Mr. Connelly, following a request for his report on the sidewalk on John-st bridge, stated that he had been unable to investigate the matter during the winter but would be ready to make his report and recommendations at the next session of the council. The investigation is to determine whether the sidewalk as it is at present can be removed and a new one built on braces outside the railing. The present arrangement is unsatisfactory because the driveway is very narrow and dangerous to pedestrians, it was said. Vehicular traffic often is forced so close to the sidewalk that pedestrians are unable to pass.

Twenty five men attended the meeting, and elected Howard Nusslecker as chairman on arrangements for the next monthly meeting. This office is changed every month. George Nixon is permanent chairman of the meetings.

The meeting was cut short to permit the men to attend the saxophone band concert in Lawrence Memorial chapel, but before it adjourned Henry Ossinga, a member, gave a talk on bee culture and beekeeping.

Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of every month.

to avoid spattering of mud, it was explained.

Proposals for installation of catch-basins at the corners of Lorain and Summer-sts and Fourth and Fairview-sts were referred to the street and bridge committee.

A number of permits and licenses were approved by the council, as follows: License to run a new bus to the Inter-city Bus Co.; sewerdigger's license to Frank Barz; and a walk-maker's license to Fred Lillge. Request by Marston Brothers Co. to install fuel oil tanks in their Oneida-st yards was referred to the street and bridge committee with power to act. Application of John Wagner for a class A permit to operate a soft drink parlor on N. Richmond-st was referred to the police and license committee.

Bills totalling $15,301.02 were allowed.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

SCIENCE CAMPS ON TRAIL OF CRIMINAL

Kiwanians Told How Scientific Sleuths Work in Criminal Trials

Scientific methods used in the detection of crime were discussed by Prof. J. H. Mathews, of the chemistry department of the University of Wisconsin, before the Kiwanis club Wednesday noon in Conway hotel. He used stereopticon slides to illustrate his talk. Prof. Mathews was one of the star witnesses for the state in the Dietrich murder case in Appleton two years ago, and he showed pictures of bullets which were introduced in that case, showing how the rifling of the gun made marks on the jacket of the bullet. He also introduced pictures of evidence in the Magnuson case, showing the metal fixing mechanism of the bomb, in which the metalgraphic analysis of the steel mechanism was identical with the surface analysis of the steel used in the mechanism of a gasoline engine on the defendant's farm.

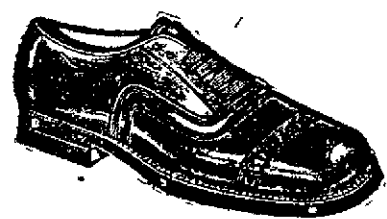

Prof. Mathews proposed a bill which is now before the state legislature, which provides that the state would have access to the services of a group of experts to render assistance when called upon. Such expert service was furnished by the chemistry department of the University of Wisconsin in these two murder cases and also in several others.

The attendance prize was awarded to Guy Warner and was given by Ray Packard. The Lawrence college basketball team and Coach Arthur Denney were guests of the club.

ALL POLITICS, NO BUSINESS IN TAX BILL

The performance of the state senate Wednesday in dealing with the tax bill is added proof of the lack of intelligent consideration of the measure. It shows that whatever action is taken will be the result of politics, and nothing else. As matters stand now the bill is thirty per cent Blaine and seventy per cent socialist. In order to get the socialist support the amendment adopted last week, providing for a deduction of 6 per cent of assessed value of real and personal property used in producing income in lieu of the present personal property offset, is now rejected. If the 6 per cent provision brought in by the administration a week ago was good then it is good now. Yet it is surrendered to get three socialist votes. Obviously a bill so put together is not constructed in good faith and with no regard for public interests. The same thing applies to the repeated changes in the manner of distribution. These things of themselves disclose that the administration has no fixed policy with reference to taxation. Furthermore, not a single member of the senate, nor the governor himself, has any real understanding of what the effects of the legislation would be. So many changes have been made in the original bill that calculations based on its provisions are of no value. Everything has become mere guess work. Changes and amendments are made solely to get votes. How much revenue the amended bill will produce and how it will affect taxpayers, no one has the slightest idea, and no one seems to care. The only known fact is that taxes will be increased and that the increase to small manufacturers and merchants will be very heavy.

McClintock. But of course Shepherd must not be judged guilty until his guilt is proved.

Young McClintock, a millionaire orphan, died of typhoid fever in the Shepherd home and left to Shepherd practically the whole of his large estate. The motive for the crime, if there was crime, is obvious. The case recalls the famous trial and conviction of the attorney Patrick for the murder of the New York-Texas millionaire, Rice. In this case Patrick, who was Rice's lawyer, forged his client's name to a bogus will, leaving him the estate, and then killed him. It was one of the most famous of American criminal trials, yet the defendant was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

The whole case against William Shepherd will rest upon the credibility of the witnesses. If their evidence is believed by the jury, Shepherd's interest in typhus germs and other facts, to say nothing of the Fauman confession, would be enough to convict.

The case is of dramatic interest because of the betrothal to young McClintock of a prominent Chicago girl and the futile attempt on the part of the fiancée to have the marriage ceremony performed before McClintock's death. The trial undoubtedly will be a great legal battle, second in public interest only to the recent Loeb-Leopold case.

GLORIA SWANSON'S HUSBAND

The movie world from gold coast to gold coast is sorely perplexed. Has Gloria Swanson got a real count for a husband or is he a counterfeit? There is a Paris publisher so unkind as to say his noble highness is none other than a former New York bartender and that not a drop of the lavender flows through his veins. We do not want to give a prejudiced opinion, but judging by his picture—the one with the derby planted on the side of the head—we should incline to the suspicion that he was an ex-banana vender.

But whether 100 per cent proof or less than one half of one per cent, we fear Gloria has picked a fourth lemon. (Or is it the sixth, we have no definite count.) This title game is a risky business. Along with some other foreign importations, it has been greatly diluted, and there is a good deal of spurious goods on the market. That a movie star should be taken in, and particularly one who regularly braves the after is almost beyond comprehension, for they generally know good intoxicants when they see them. We thought only daughters of fat meat packers, railroad magnates, et cetera, fell for counts. Pretty soon there will be no exclusive pastime left to the idle rich. Movie land is hot on their trail. Meanwhile the awed proletariat is kept in a state of exquisite suspense. Gosh, Mabel, ain't it simply thrilling! We'll tell the waiting world!

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

What's in a name, as the poet once remarked? Surprisingly little, if you take seriously some of the answers in a recent examination given co-eds at the University of Chicago.

Benito Mussolini, for instance, was described as an "Irish radical" and a "Bolshevik agitator." Feodor Chaliapin, the Russian opera singer, was "an impersonator of Charlie Chaplin."

Charles Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, was a "column conductor for a local newspaper." Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, was described as a "Scandinavian author" and as a "Norwegian jockey."

In justice to the co-eds, it must be stated that more than 75 per cent of the replies were right. Still, it must have been rather mortifying to the Fascist leader and to the great educator, Dr. Eliot. One feels they had a right to expect every college student to know them.

If there were no cuss words how would you talk about the weather.

Most of the future convicts think they are too good to work now.

After a man gets down to brass tacks he finds they are gold.

If things look bad, just think of the money you are saving by watermelons not being in season.

More people would amount to something if there were fewer ways to do it.

One thing about a crowded street car is it is much warmer.

ANOTHER LEGAL BATTLE

The indictment of William D. Shepherd for the murder of William Nelson McClintock has been expected by the public for some time. The investigation, at first discouraged by the state but persisted in by Judge Harry Olson, has developed exceedingly strong evidence against the defendant. We believe that nine out of ten persons who have been reading the case incline to the opinion that Shepherd is guilty on the evidence presented even in advance of the "confession" of Dr. Fauman, which admits a conspiracy between himself and Shepherd to murder young

McClintock. But of course Shepherd must not be judged guilty until his guilt is proved.

Young McClintock, a millionaire orphan, died of typhoid fever in the Shepherd home and left to Shepherd practically the whole of his large estate. The motive for the crime, if there was crime, is obvious. The case recalls the famous trial and conviction of the attorney Patrick for the murder of the New York-Texas millionaire, Rice. In this case Patrick, who was Rice's lawyer, forged his client's name to a bogus will, leaving him the estate, and then killed him. It was one of the most famous of American criminal trials, yet the defendant was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

The whole case against William Shepherd will rest upon the credibility of the witnesses. If their evidence is believed by the jury, Shepherd's interest in typhus germs and other facts, to say nothing of the Fauman confession, would be enough to convict.

The case is of dramatic interest because of the betrothal to young McClintock of a prominent Chicago girl and the futile attempt on the part of the fiancée to have the marriage ceremony performed before McClintock's death. The trial undoubtedly will be a great legal battle, second in public interest only to the recent Loeb-Leopold case.

GLORIA SWANSON'S HUSBAND

The movie world from gold coast to gold coast is sorely perplexed. Has Gloria Swanson got a real count for a husband or is he a counterfeit? There is a Paris publisher so unkind as to say his noble highness is none other than a former New York bartender and that not a drop of the lavender flows through his veins. We do not want to give a prejudiced opinion, but judging by his picture—the one with the derby planted on the side of the head—we should incline to the suspicion that he was an ex-banana vender.

But whether 100 per cent proof or less than one half of one per cent, we fear Gloria has picked a fourth lemon. (Or is it the sixth, we have no definite count.) This title game is a risky business. Along with some other foreign importations, it has been greatly diluted, and there is a good deal of spurious goods on the market. That a movie star should be taken in, and particularly one who regularly braves the after is almost beyond comprehension, for they generally know good intoxicants when they see them. We thought only daughters of fat meat packers, railroad magnates, et cetera, fell for counts. Pretty soon there will be no exclusive pastime left to the idle rich. Movie land is hot on their trail. Meanwhile the awed proletariat is kept in a state of exquisite suspense. Gosh, Mabel, ain't it simply thrilling! We'll tell the waiting world!

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

What's in a name, as the poet once remarked? Surprisingly little, if you take seriously some of the answers in a recent examination given co-eds at the University of Chicago.

Benito Mussolini, for instance, was described as an "Irish radical" and a "Bolshevik agitator." Feodor Chaliapin, the Russian opera singer, was "an impersonator of Charlie Chaplin."

Charles Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, was a "column conductor for a local newspaper." Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, was described as a "Scandinavian author" and as a "Norwegian jockey."

In justice to the co-eds, it must be stated that more than 75 per cent of the replies were right. Still, it must have been rather mortifying to the Fascist leader and to the great educator, Dr. Eliot. One feels they had a right to expect every college student to know them.

CLUB CONSIDERS SUPPORT FOR WORK OF H. S. ATHLETES

Judge Werner is Speaker at Meeting of Kaukauna Advancement Assn.

FAIR BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER, CHAIRMAN REPORTS

Didn't Quite Mean Expenses but Interest and Exhibits Were Larger

Kaukauna—About 55 men attended the meeting of Kaukauna Advancement Association Wednesday evening in the council chambers. A report of the mid-winter fair by John Coppes, general chairman, was accepted. The success of the students in the high school in their activities was brought to the attention of the club and a discussion was held regarding the advisability of showing in some way the interest of the community in the extra-curricular work of the students. Coach William Smith was called upon to offer a suggestion but stated he knew of no way except to continue to support the school. Mr. Smith ended by thanking the individuals of the club and of the city for the interest they have shown in school athletics.

Judge E. V. Werner of circuit court, was a guest of the club and gave a short talk. Judge Werner believes a dollar should be a dollar everywhere, not because of its intrinsic backing but from a mathematical standpoint. Intrinsic values are never the same, he stated while mathematics never change. The speaker said at present there are in this county 48 different measures for bushels. This condition makes it impossible to secure an equal value for like value between buyer and seller. Mr. Werner believes a standard universal medium of exchange is necessary to change the present conditions of affairs which he termed "unfortunate." He said there are plenty of people in this country who are finding fault with the government but few who are offering a remedy. He explained that a critic is the one who can pick out what is wrong and then can tell what to do to improve conditions.

NOTE $500 TO KEEP SMITH IN KAUKAUNA

Council Agrees to Proposal to Pay for Service of Playground Head

Kaukauna—An adjourned meeting of the common council was held Wednesday evening in the council chambers. The body adopted a report of a special committee which recommended the appropriation of $500 toward the salary of William Smith, high school athletic coach, provided he is retained by the school board to act as athletic director in this city during the summer vacation. The committee composed of Aldermen W. H. Copp, William Doering and H. Q. Wittman held a conference on Saturday, March 7 with the teachers' committee of the board of education.

The council voted $500 as its share of the deficit incurred by the mid-winter fair. The amount is slightly more than required but was purposely made so to take care of any small bills which may have failed to come to the attention of the fair committee.

Application of Jacob Miller for a transfer of his class "A" permit from 107 W. Wisconsin-ave. to 119 E. Third-st. was granted and the application of Henry Murbig for a class "A" permit to be used in the building to be vacated by Mr. Miller was allowed. The building in which Mr. Miller will reopen is the one formerly occupied by Gus Johnson and Son, electric service store.

Acting upon the recommendation of Henry Klyce, engineer on the new bridge construction project, the council voted an allowance of $37,023.75 to Warden Allen, contractors for work accomplished on the bridges.

A petition of tax payers asking for the installation of sewer and water main was referred to the utility commission. Sewer and water mains were requested on DeLong-ave. from Walnut to DeLong-ave. on DeLong-ave. to Seymour-st. The section mentioned is at the extreme north end of DeLong-ave. just beyond the property of the Home Supply company.

Harold Fisher of Manitowish, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis at St. Elizabeth hospital, has returned to his home.

Never Let a Cold Get a Start

Vapors Check a Cold Overnight

There are many ways to treat a cold but only one DIRECT way—with vapors that can be inhaled. Vapors penetrate immediately into every corner of the air passages and lungs, soothing and healing with every breath.

Vicks is so remarkably successful in treating cold troubles because it acts like a vapor lamp in salve form.

It rubs over throat and clears the body heat relieving the pain of Menthon, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thyme and Turpentine. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poison or plaster.

This double, direct action often checks the worst cold overnight.

The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co.

PUBLIC SERVICE BUILDING, MILWAUKEE

March 19, 1925

TO THE PREFERRED SHARE HOLDERS OF THE MILWAUKEE ELECTRIC RAILWAY & LIGHT COMPANY:—

You are reminded that a special meeting of the stock holders of your Company will be held in the Public Service Building, Milwaukee, Wis., at 12 o'clock noon on Monday, March 23, 1925, for the purpose of voting upon a proposal that your Company accept the terms of a "service-at-cost and municipal acquisition" contract passed by the Common Council of the City of Milwaukee on March 2, 1925, and approved by the Mayor.

This contract has been proposed by the City and its negotiation has been conducted by representatives of the City and of your Company in an effort to provide a firm basis for friendly co-operation between the City and the Company in supplying Greater Milwaukee with street railway and electric and heating services at the minimum cost consistent with the utmost efficiency and the earning of a fair return on your Company's actual investment. Lack of co-operation between a utility company and the community it serves invariably proves expensive to both community and public service corporation, with no resulting gain for either of them.

On March 9, the board of directors of your Company voted to accept, SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL OF THE SHARE HOLDERS, the terms of the foregoing contract ordinance. The management of your Company earnestly recommends to you that the contract be accepted. At the meeting next Monday the entire common stock of the Company will be voted in favor of the contract, and the preferred share holders are urged to join in committing the Company to a program of co-operation with the City in affording the best public service to the community. In order that the necessary vote may be obtained at the stock holders' meeting, YOU ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED TO SIGN AND RETURN PROMPTLY TO THE COMPANY THE PROXY WHICH WAS FORWARDED TO YOU ON MARCH 9.

WAUPACA COUNCIL GRANTS ELECTION ON FIRE EQUIPMENT

Petitions Are Heeded but Amount of $5,000 Is Not Considered Enough

Special to the Post-Crescent
Waupaca—The city council in session Tuesday night took up consideration of the petition of the voters on the purchase of additional equipment for the fire department. By a vote of the aldermen it was decided to submit the question to the people at the regular election in April. A discussion was had as to the amount the petition set forth to be expended. Many signers of the petition as well as several members of the council were of the opinion that to modernize the present fire department a much greater amount than $5000 would be required. However it was decided to put the question to the people in the form of a referendum.

Last fall the city fathers voted to raise $1,500 to be expended in the erection of a toolhouse. Tuesday they agreed to ask for bids on the job. The structure will be erected on Mill-st near other city property.

No developments in the aldermanic election campaign have appeared other than a rumor that Dr. Tonnessen would run for alderman in the Fourth ward in place of Con Gmeiner, the incumbent. Candidates, however, have until March 23 to file nomination papers.

Tuesday evening at the high school gymnasium the members of the Parent-Teachers association gave a St. Patrick day party. A program was enjoyed. A quartet composed of Mrs. H. Nelson, Misses Helen and Francis Hill and Dorothy Richardson sang a few Irish songs. Four young ladies danced Irish steps and jigs and Roy Christensen sang solos. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing Irish dances in which many participated. Nearly 200 were in attendance and it was one of the largest gatherings the association has had this season.

The mission meetings conducted this week at St. Mark church by the Rev. MacVeigh Harrison of West Park, N. Y., are being well attended and will continue up to Friday night. from 55 cents to 60 cents. This is about 15 cents under the high mark of the season. Very little hauling is being done due the condition of the roads in the county. There still remains a large amount of the crop in the hands of the farmers.

STAGE And SCREEN

"POISONED PARADISE," FILM EXPOSE OF MONTE CARLO

Manager Louis Lutz of the Appleton Theater announces that he has succeeded in securing the much heralded Preferred Picture, "Poisoned Paradise," for its first local showing and that it will show in his house next Saturday.

This announcement is one that will be received with interest by every single fan who has been waiting to see this newest B. F. Schubert production. It is said to be among the most pretentious film undertakings of the year.

The story will be remembered as the popular piece of writing by Robert W. Service, which attained much vogue upon its publication a year or two ago. In this novel, Service succeeded in placing Monte Carlo on the literary map with much the same clarity as he depicted Alaska in his earlier writings.

STORY FORBIDDEN

Since the signing of the Armistice the famous author has lived in Monte Carlo—easily one of the most picturesque spots in the whole world—and his impressions of it are set forth in a really remarkable plot in which he tells the inside story of the methods employed in the celebrated Casino. This expose has been a trifle too frank for the comfort of officials of the gambling resort with the result that the sale of the novel in the principality is prohibited.

This "Forbidden story," however, offers unique picture material and film authorities who have previewed it say that it is a complete departure from the usual screen plot formula. The direction of the picture was placed in the hands of Gasnier, whose former work with such productions as "Rich Men's Wives," "Poor Men's Wives" and "Maytime" is familiar to everyone.

How Fat Actress Became Slender

Many stage people now depend entirely upon Marmola Prescription Tablets for reducing and controlling fat. One clever actress tells that she reduced steadily and easily by using this new form of the famous Marmola Prescription. Now, by taking Marmola Prescription Tablets several times a year, she keeps her weight just right. All druggists sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a box or if you prefer you can secure them direct from the Marmola Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit, Mich. If you have not tried them, do so. They are pleasant to take and effective.

Theatre on April 4, it will carry with it the song hit of 1924, "Haresfoot Sweetheart," which will be featured by the club orchestra between the acts of the all-man musical comedy.

"Haresfoot Sweetheart" was written last spring by Jesse Cohen and Port Butts, both of whom have been prominent in Haresfoot activities of the past. It was first played on the 1924 Haresfoot serenade, where it made an immediate hit. Later in the spring it was broadcasted from the university station, WTIA, and two telegrams were received asking for orchestration rights.

ZANE GREY, AUTHOR OF "THE LAST OF THE DUANES"

Tom Mix, born to the saddle, portrays the leading character in the film version of "The Last of the Duanes." He is not an actor imitating a cowboy, but a cowboy going through a role that he has lived all his life. This combination of author, star and story does much toward making the photodrama one of genuine entertainment. The New Bijou theatre will show "The Last of the Duanes" today, Friday and Saturday.

Playing opposite Tom Mix is the delightful Marian Nixon. Her fresh, piquant beauty adds greatly to the romantic element of the picture. Bewitching smiles and dimples, flashing eyes in a mobile, expressive face, a simplicity of manner, all of them are Marians. But she is generous with her charm, and those who see her in this Fox production will be doubly gratified by Tom's breezy performance and by Marian's airy vision.

"SECRETS OF THE NIGHT"
"Secrets of the Night" Universal-

Jewel coming to the Elite theatre next Saturday and Sunday is the screen version of the famous stage play, "The Nightcap" by Guy Bolton and Max Marcin. It is a serio-comic melodrama full of mysterious situations and unexpected denouements. James Kirkwood and Midge Bellamy are the featured players in an all star cast which includes Zasu Pitts, Rosemary Theby, Tom Wilson, Joseph Singleton, Tom Ricketts, Tom S. Guise, Otto Hoffman, Arthur Stewart Hull, Herbert Baehle directed.

"THE GREAT DIVIDE" COMING

"The Great Divide," Reginald Barker's screen version of the famous American play by William Vaughn Moody, will come to the Elite theatre next week. The role of Stephen Ghent will be played by Conway Tearle, while Alice Terry will appear as the New England girl, Ruth Jordan. Others in the cast include Huntly Gordon, Allan Forrest, George Cooper, and Ford Sterling. Percy Hildburn, the cameraman, is said to have obtained some exceptional views in the Arizona Painted Desert, where the exteriors were made. "The Great Divide" was adapted by Waldemar Young, and is presented by Louis B. Mayer. It is a Metro-Goldwyn picture.

Night Coughing
Stopped Quickly By Simple Treatment

Thousands who are troubled with persistent coughing at night, which by robbing them of valuable sleep weakens their systems and lays them open to dangerous infections, can quickly act to prevent this danger through a very simple treatment. People who have hardly been able to rest at all on account of coughing spells have found they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring, and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, and bronchitis and is wonderful for children's coughs and asthmatic coughs—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

DALE THRESHING
OUT UNION HIGH SCHOOL PROBLEM

Electors Meet Friday Night to Determine Educational Policy

George S. Luck of the state department of education will be the speaker at a mass-meeting Friday evening at the village of Dale, called for the purpose of discussing the proposed union high school in that village. The proposition has been put to the villagers several times, but after hard fights, always was discarded.

A desperate attempt will be made to put the proposition over Friday night and Mr. Luck's experience and knowledge of such work is expected to help the audience to work out the problem.

The requirements for a union high school are: Twenty-five children in proposed district qualified to enter high school (Dale has about 50), an assessed valuation of $1,000,000, or more; a building, with an assembly room seating about 60 students, and also one recitation room, one room for a library and principal's office and one room for a lavatory.

A school district and town may own a building jointly for union high school purposes, it is explained. A union high school district consists of an entire town in this case, since there are no incorporated villages or cities. Thirty-six sections are not required where the high school district comprises an entire town.

The estimated cost of the school follows: A present building to be enlarged or a new one to be erected, to be decided by the electors at the first annual meeting; two teachers to administer a four year high school offering the usual English course enrolling up to 55 pupils; a principal to be paid from $1,500 to $1,600; about $500 to be provided for equipment and library the first year and about $150 a year thereafter.

The union high school in the town of Freedom in this county is given as an illustration. Conditions are just the same as in the proposed Dale district. In 1924 the entire cost of the Freedom school was $5,777.95, including salaries of two teachers, supplies, janitor service, fuel, repairs, equipment and payment of a loan of $1,975.

Union high schools receive state aid up to $500 when two teachers are employed; $1,200 if there are three teachers; $1,500 if there are four teachers. It is explained to Dale voters. Two teachers will be needed at Dale, if more are ever needed, there will be more students, and tuition from outside towns to help meet the added cost it is declared.

The advantages to be derived from such a school, proponents of the system declare, are: The town of Dale will save the $1,600 now being paid to other high schools for tuition; more students can attend high school if it is nearer home; pupils can attend school and be home nights; increased farm values because there is a high school within easy reach of all homes in the district; high school tuition is now $72 a year and there is a bill in the legislature to increase tuition to $118 a year, per pupil.

RHEUMATISM
LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinges of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe case where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above every instance.

Schlitz Brothers Co., Voigt's Drug Store are my appointed agents in your city. If you live out of town I'll gladly send you free particulars.

Go To Jail
If You Would
Learn Trade

Outagamie-co jail soon will be in a class by itself as far as county jails are concerned, and state prisons had best look to their laurels, for Sheriff P. G. Schwartz is installing a trade school for the prisoners. For years the best prisons of the country have taught inmates trades of all sorts to prepare them for a useful life later, but the local jail is the first in the country to attempt such a tremendous task. One course will be taken at a time until it is completed.

The school will open with a painting course as county officials believe that it is the most interesting because all people like to "daub" around with paint brushes at some time in life, if only for amusement. But the painting will not be the "canvas-kind."

The entire jail is to be redecorated and painted soon and this will give the prisoners an opportunity to learn to paint, for Sheriff Schwartz intends to have them spend their leisure hours in this manner. As new prisoners come in they will be kept busy in this manner until the building is painted. The bare will be painted a much lighter color than the floors and walls.

GOLF CLUB HIRES
KEEPER OF GREENS

Jack Taylor, golf ground expert who came to this country from Scotland four years ago, was engaged as greens keeper of Butte des Morts Golf Club at a meeting of the green committee of Winnebago Land Co. Tuesday in the office of Daniel P. Steinberg, chairman.

Mr. Taylor will move to Appleton within the next day or two with his wife and child and will reside at the golf grounds on Brickyard-rd. He will have the upkeep of the 18-hole course in charge. The man is considered one of the best greens keepers in this locality, having had considerable experience in Scotland and in this country.

Purchase of tools and equipment also was authorized by the committee including a tractor-truck, power putting green mower and other apparatus.

Playing will start on the course just as soon as the grounds are dry enough. There will be no waiting, as the grass has matured sufficiently to withstand the playing.

BLAINE'S ATTACK ON HIGHWAY BOARD PROTESTED HERE

County Commission Opposes
Removal of Turneure and Hotchkiss

A resolution protesting the removal of the Wisconsin Highway Commission of either or both of the ex-officio members was adopted by the Outagamie County Highway Commission, and was presented to the state legislature and Gov. Blaine. The resolution declares that since the state highway program involves the expenditure of millions of dollars the best trained technical knowledge and experience is needed.

The two ex-officio members, removed of whom is being attempted, are J. E. Turneure, dean of the engineering department of the University of Wisconsin, and W. O. Hotchkiss, state geologist, whose services are placed at the disposal of the state without compensation.

The resolution also fights the attempts that are being made to change the form of the highway commission by wiping out the State Geological Survey, which would automatically remove the state geologist from membership of the commission.

WHEREAS, attempts are being made, in the present session of the Wisconsin Legislature to change the form of the Wisconsin Highway Commission by removing therefrom the two ex-officio members, thus creating a commission made up wholly of members appointed by the Governor:

WHEREAS, the highway program involves the expenditure of millions of dollars, the bill just passed by the Legislature in session carrying appropriations which will run to $15,000,000, in the expenditure of which we need the best trained technical knowledge and experience.

WHEREAS, the membership of the Wisconsin Highway Commission of the two ex-officio members, the dean of the engineering college, of the University of Wisconsin, Mr. J. E. Turneure, and the state geologist, W. O. Hotchkiss, places at the service of the state, without compensation, two technically trained men with long years of experience which has resulted in the saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the state:

WHEREAS, further attempts are being made to change the form of the Highway Commission by wiping out the State Geological Survey, which would automatically remove the state geologist from membership on the Commission; therefore:

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the members of the County Highway Committee of Outagamie County, do hereby earnestly protest against any such action which would result in the removal from the Wisconsin Highway Commission of either or both of the ex-officio members.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the chairman of every county highway committee in Wisconsin, with the request that other committees formulate resolutions of protest and send copies to their representatives in the State Senate and Assembly, and that they also forward a copy to Senator George Staudenmayer at Madison, who is the principal exponent of the movement to remove the ex-officio members from the Highway Commission.

Dated at Appleton, Wisconsin, this 16th day of March, A. D. 1925.

Fellowship Of Prayer

Daily Lenten Bible reading prepared for Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

The Reward of Faithfulness
Read Lk. 3:18-27. Text: 9:24. But whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

MEDITATION—There are some values that cannot be had by striving for them directly, they come only as direct results. No man can say, behold now I shall live a great life and experience life's greatest blessings. But if a man does good today and tomorrow an opportunity offers, he comes to the end of each day with the consciousness that he has truly lived. Christ was continually anxious that men should have true goals and worthy motives. Where this is true real life follows as a natural result.

"Self-denial, sacrifice and obedience result in the only experience worthy of the name 'life.'"

PRAYER—Gracious God, teach us to see the duty that lies nearest at hand. May we find ways of working with our fellows to do the work of the world, that we lose not the sense of thy divine companionship. Let us live in heavenly places with Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

(Copyright, 1925—F. L. Fasley)

CHURCH SCHOOL HEADS CONSIDER CHURCH CENSUS

A committee reported on a list of appropriate books for Sunday school teachers and workers at the meeting of the Church School Superintendents Luncheon club Monday in the Y. M. C. A. The list of books was furnished by the Rev. E. Emme, who is working with the Methodist board of religious education and J. L. Rogers of the Wisconsin religious educational council. Plans are being made to prepare a reading circle for the students. A committee consisting of Dr. J. R. Denyes and the Rev. Edward Nuss, was appointed to consult all the ministers in the community about the Daily Vacation Bible school to be held during the coming summer. There will be a special meeting of the organization on March 30, to which all the cooperating pastors will be invited to discuss the question of a religious census.

These People Once Ill, Glad To Tell the World About Parry's Vegetable Compound

Sold in Appleton by Viogt's Drug Store Only

It's the people who refuse to become discouraged or disappointed when illness overwhelms them that have the best chance to again enjoy the blessings of health and happiness.

Many ailments; yes, many so called serious diseases, are caused by what is known as intestinal stasis.

That's what the medical profession call it. "An accumulation of poisons or toxins in the bowels, due to a stagnation of the functions of the intestines." It's perhaps a better way to say it so that all can understand.

The seeping of these poisons into the blood and hence into the entire system causes a lot of sickness and misery in this world and this sickness can best be overcome by removing the cause.

This is no easy matter, for once entrenched these poisons are hard to get rid of and so a medicine must be used that is effective for that purpose and Parry's Vegetable Compound, a rare combination of oils is recommended.

Parry's Vegetable Compound has helped a host of ailing people—thousands of bottles are sold every week—but read what follows—we quote from letters received—we have hundreds of other thankful letters.

To a mother, here is one of the sweetest stories ever told. It is written by Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Hagerstown, Maryland.

"I am extremely glad to be able to report to you the wonderful benefits our little son, Kenneth, has received from the use of Parry's Vegetable Compound. He can now get around well, is enjoying the use of his hands and limbs, can open his hands wide and lay them flat upon the table the same as any other person. And instead of emaciation of body he so plainly showed, he is fast taking on flesh, and his body rounding out. In fact, he is so fully advanced toward normal health that we are preparing to send him to school at the beginning next term. You cannot imagine how happy it makes us to see him so rapidly recovering.

"Don't hesitate to use our names in recommendation of Parry's Vegetable Compound, as it has brought the joy into our lives of knowing that our Kenneth will not have to go through life a helpless cripple, but can go about unaided, the same as others do."

And here's a quotation from the letter of James Ewing of 1764 Syracuse St., Cincinnati, Ohio, that's well worth reading.

"I want to tell what this wonderful medicine has done for me. In October 1921, I took sick with what the doctor said, was La Grippe. Then about the middle of November was taken to the General Hospital. There they took an x-ray picture of my lungs. This picture, the doctor said, showed that I had congested lungs. They doctored me for the lung trouble up until about the first of August, 1922, but I didn't seem to get any relief. Then about the first of October, a friend of my mother told her about Parry's Vegetable Compound and I decided to give it a trial. Have been working now for some time, was examined by a doctor a few days ago and pronounced all right."

Ask for a copy of "A True Story," one of the most wonderful books ever published—It's Free.

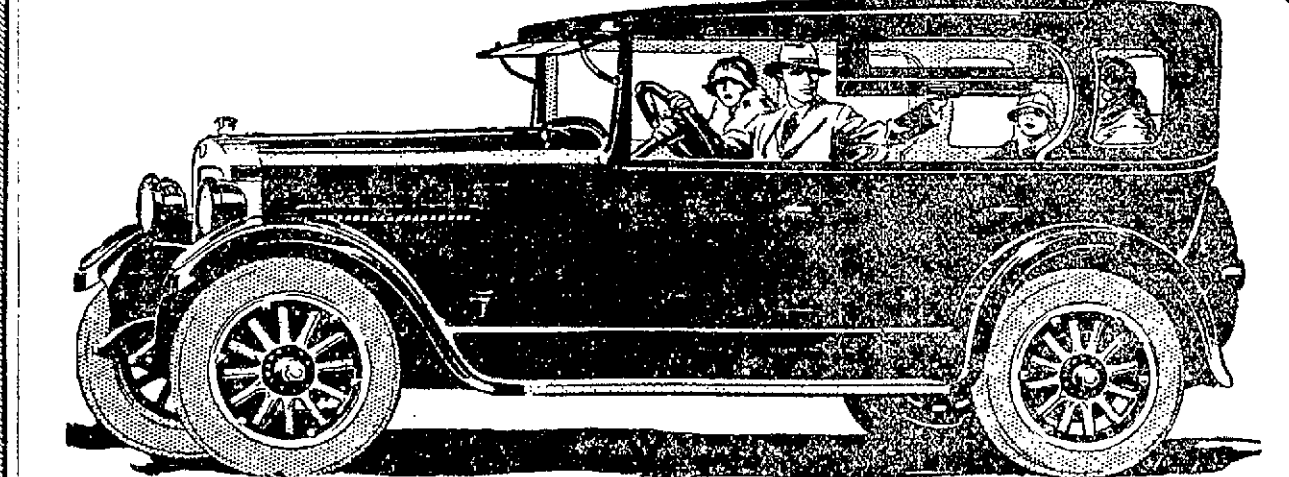

Parry's Vegetable Compound, the medicine that has helped and is helping thousands, can only be obtained in Appleton at Viogt's Drug Store.

COUNCIL WANTS TO KNOW WHAT CITY SCHOOL BOARD DOES

Mayor Sande Says Alderman Will Be Told When Board Is Ready to Act

Neenah—A total of $70,437.22 was reported by the finance committee of the city council Wednesday evening, as the amount expended the last two weeks. About $60,000 of this was paid to the county treasurer as the city's share of the county tax.

Very little of importance came before the meeting, the main discussion centering on a request by Louis Herziger, alderman from the Fifth ward that the school board cooperate with the council by keeping the aldermen informed as to progress being made in the plans for the new high school. Mayor Sande informed the alderman that there was nothing to report as the preliminary plans had not been received from the architect and as soon as they are received he will be sure the school board would be glad to give the information desired. Mayor Sande stated "the school board is a body by itself and has its own budget to work with and I do not think that body would go ahead and do anything out of the ordinary over the heads of the city council."

To bring the matter to a head, William Schmidt of the Third ward suggested that the committee of the council on education attend meetings of the school board.

A hint toward having a Junior high school in the Third or Fifth ward was given by Alderman Herziger but this did not come to a head as it was pointed out that it would be an expensive proposition.

Mr. Smith of the firm of Smith & Brandt, architects of Appleton, presented a plan for a comfort station to be erected either on the south side or east side of the city hall. The plan called for toilets for men and women, and cell room for women visitors.

The plans call for a one-story building of brick and tile, 28 by 44 feet, and to cost $7,334. This matter was left with the committee on parks and public buildings to report at the next meeting.

The council accepted an invitation to a concert to be given in Lawrence chapel, Appleton, next Monday evening by the 120th Field Artillery band.

The property of Jim John, Serbian junk man, on Main-st an alleged eyesore, was discussed and will be inspected by the council and city health officer who will report their findings to the state industrial commission.

Among other matters to come up were repairing the building on West Doty-ave, owned by the city so that it will fit to live in. The opening of Klondike-st, between Cherry and North Park-ave, was referred to a committee to ascertain whether the property owners would donate parcels of land to assist in the road building.

A PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

RECIPES

Buying Spring Wardrobe Is Pleasant Task

Until now the few summery frocks displayed were meant for those who travel southward in winter, but from now on the styles we see are put out for our own selection.

Already we see the return of lighter weight clothes. Many women have already cast off their fur coats and are wearing long cloth coats trimmed in fur. The first of these to appear were of bright reds and greens but more recently we see light beige trimmed in light-toned fur about collar, cuff and hem line. Real spring models confine their fur trimming to neck and collar or to the hem border, but seldom to both. Kashas and English woolen materials are the favorite materials for the long coat. Fur-trimming includes yellowish shades such as krimmer, beige-dyed fox, fitch, leopard and gray wolf.

HATS BLOSSOM OUT

Hats match the coat or the ensemble suit this season and most of these are made of felt and trimmed with flowers at one side or on the top of the crown. Little bunches of flowers placed at the top of the crown are a bit more spring-like than the perky little bows of ribbon, although one sees much of both.

Skirts are shorter than they were earlier in the winter and necklines are cut a bit higher to give balance to the figure. Sleeves are very short or full length on frocks.

Shoes of pump shape are those most popular for spring and recently introduced are the ankle straps which are worn with pump-shaped shoes. Suedes are passing with the winter and satin again is a leading shoe fabric. Kid in light tans and grays are shown in all the shops and too-toned shoes of blending shades are shown for street wear. For dress wear there are brown satins which are several shades deeper than the blond shades which are popular this season.

Many spring frocks are made with melon-shaped sleeves with the tight-fitting cuff extending over the wrist. These are practical for street wear and since the sleeves are decorated in embroidery, they give a bit of color to the dark crepe or silk frock. The sleeves are always of the same material as the frock with the design carried out in contrasting color which may be repeated elsewhere on the frock.

FULLNESS IN SKIRT

Silk frocks invariably have some fullness introduced into the skirts. Usually inverted tucks or fine shirings confine the fullness at either color to the dark crepe or silk frock. The fullness is at the sides and released at the flounce to give fullness. Sometimes the plaits in semi-sports models are set in panel effect from the side pockets and they are released at the knee to give the desired full hem line.

Violet, fuchsia and cyclamen pinks are the shades one sees most of in millinery. Sometimes several shades of purple tones are blended and these with pinkish cast are most becoming. Just as present one sees very few hats that are made of felt, since felt rules the millinery world. The purplish toned corsage is the one most popular with the wearers of the fuchsia bonnet. One sees many young girls with violet colored blouses or tunics, tan topcoats, violet hats and violet corsages. Even the border of the kerchief is kept in violet tones.

FLOWERS BACK ON HATS

A wreath of flowers about the brim of the new spring hat is one of Fashion's favorite adornments. It is a decided change from the severe hats we have worn for so long, and it is entirely in keeping with nature's plan of blossoming forth into color after a season of winter. Naturally the wise woman chooses the flower that is most becoming to her coloring, and is careful not to let her hat submerge her personality.

LETTER FROM MRS. SALLY AATHERTON TO JAMES CONDON

I expect, Jimmie dear, that by this time your anger is at white heat because I haven't answered your letter.

I know you expected I would answer the momentous announcement of your engagement immediately, but you must remember that my time for the last two weeks has been taken up entirely with Mr. Prescott's business.

By this time you have probably been officially notified that Mr. Hamilton appointed Mr. Prescott the executor of his estate and manager of the steel plant. I know this was not a surprise to you as you wrote me in your letter that you expected that this was what would happen if Mr. Hamilton did not survive his illness.

I don't know however, if you have heard that we are going to move over the first of the month. Leslie is going to remain with her mother while Mr. Prescott comes over and moves me and the other office furniture over there. Then after we get settled in the business, Leslie will come here and close her apartment and returned to Pittsburgh.

I expect Mr. Prescott here day after tomorrow, as he has informed me that he wants to get into harness as soon as possible. He has already tendered his resignation to the president of the Acme Advertising Company and it has been accepted.

The general manager was good enough to tell me that they would be glad if I would stay as secretary of the new head of Mr. Prescott's department, but I told them that I was leaving when Mr. Prescott died to take entire charge of the advertising of the steel plant of which he will be president and manager.

So much for the news and business end of my letter.

I am glad, Jimmie, that you explicitly told me that you had "grown up," for if you had not I would never have known it from anything that you said in your letter. I want you to know that I resent greatly your advice to me on the subject of my employer and my business actions. As you have already prevented me from ascribing this advice to your youthful views on life, I can not excuse what I consider a great impertinence on your part.

I think you have known me long enough to know that I have never allowed anyone in all my life to meddle with what I considered my personal affairs, and I am not going to begin now.

I think Mr. Prescott had a perfect right to feel that you were overstepping the bounds of good breeding when you asked him if Leslie and I were good friends. It was intended to stay as one of his staff after he takes charge. I am afraid you have not made your position any easier by your meddlesomeness. (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

TOMORROW: Letter from Sally Aatheron to James Condon.

Health Hints

IMPORTANT FOODS

After milk another important food is derived from grain products, Mrs. Mann learned.

Bread, cereals of all kinds, macaroni and rice. All are high in energy, and yield a large amount of working power.

The man who does heavy work, the athlete, the child that is very active, should have generous amounts of grain products at every meal. These foods will prevent the body from burning its own tissues. They are easily digested, and quickly available.

The wise cook will prepare these foods in various ways to keep them palatable. This may be done by preparing mush for breakfast, soups for luncheon, puddings for dinner also.

SISTER Mary's KITCHEN

Breakfast—Three large unweetened stewed prunes, 1 toasted bran muffin, hot water.

Luncheon—Cheese ball salad, 2 gluten pop-overs, hot water or weak tea with lemon.

Dinner—Four tablespoons water-melon cocktail—4 ounces roast leg of lamb, 4 tablespoons diced new carrots, 2 boiled new turnips, 1 combination vegetable salad, 1 cup skimmed milk.

Bedtime—one cup skimmed milk. Total calories, 10333. Protein, 255; fat, 271; carbohydrate, 507. Iron, .021 gram.

CHEESE BALL SALAD (INDIVIDUAL)

Four tablespoons cottage cheese 1 tablespoon popped nuts, 2 tablespoons minced watercress, salt and pepper, paprika, 1/4 head lettuce.

Wash and chill lettuce and separate the leaves. The cheese should be very dry. Season with salt and pepper and work in paprika to make pink. Add minced watercress and mix thoroughly. Make into small balls, roll in chopped nuts and serve on prepared lettuce.

Total calories, 215. Protein, .95; fat, .93; carbohydrate, .23. Iron, .0011 gram.

The combination vegetable salad contains 4 head lettuce, 1/2 tomato, 2 sliced radishes, 6 slices cucumber, 1 sliced Bermuda onion and 5 tips of cooked asparagus arranged on a leaf of lettuce.

Breakfast—Six large well sweetened stewed prunes with lemon, 2 soft boiled eggs, 2 slices fried corn meal mush with 2 tablespoons maple syrup, 2 toasted bran muffins, 1 tablespoon butter, hot water.

Mid-morning lunch—One large glass orange juice, 2 peanut butter sandwiches.

Luncheon—Cheese ball salad, 2 slices brown bread with raisins, 4 tablespoons chocolate bread pudding with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 1 tablespoon butter.

Afternoon tea—One cup iced chocolate, 2 satines.

Dinner four tablespoons water-melon cocktail, 4 ounces roast leg of lamb, 3 new potatoes in parsley sauce, 4 tablespoons diced new carrots with 1 tablespoon butter, 2 boiled new turnips with 2 tablespoons mock tartar sauce, 1 combination vegetable salad with 2 tablespoons Russian dressing, 2 slices bread, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 raspberry puff pudding.

Bedtime—One cup whole milk. Total calories, 3791. Protein, .402; fat, .1611; carbohydrate, .1778. Iron, .0243 gram.

One cup of your pint of milk is used in the iced chocolate. The chocolate adds fat and carbohydrate to the drink. Then if you top the glass with two tablespoons whipped cream you add more fat calories. Your afternoon tea would make a full meal for the reducing diet.

Lemon juice, the yolk of an egg and 2 tablespoons butter are added to one cup of cream sauce to make the "mock tartar" sauce.

The part remaining is still valuable for energy, but when used great care should be taken to see that the meal is supplemented with some vegetable containing mineral.

Ensemble Suit

Style authorities say this is to be a red spring. This coat is of red kasha cloth, lined with the plaid kasha cloth which also conservatively edges the dress. The coat would be an excellent separate wrap as well as part of the ensemble.

FASHION HINTS

VELET COLLARS

Velvet collars are seen on the new coats, used in very soft crush effects or scarfs.

CORAL CREPE

Coral-colored crepe makes a very smart sport frock that has square pockets and a square neckline.

CIRCULAR INSETS

The use of circular insets placed low on the skirt give the effect of fullness to the new skirts without disturbing the narrow hipline.

bread, cookies and cakes for all meals.

Where the whole grain is used the products have most food value. Such are oat meal, whole wheat, graham flour, brown rice and unbolited corn meal.

In the refining of flour and the polishing of rice, the outside coating is removed and with it most of vitamin B.

The part remaining is still valuable for energy, but when used great care should be taken to see that the meal is supplemented with some vegetable containing mineral.

Adventures Of The Twins

BACK IN THE LILY POOL.

The Fairy Queen and the Twins could see everything from where they stood on the lighthouse.

The whale that had once been a goldfish swam by and they heard him telling his story to a porpoise.

"Yes, sir," he was saying. "All I could see was flowers and water lilies and birds and the people who came to feed me. How much grander it is to ride the waves and see the world! Here comes a ship. They are coming to get a view of me."

"If I were you I think I'd duck," advised the porpoise. "One never can tell what they are after."

"I'll do nothing of the kind," said the whale. "If people want to see me I am not going to be mean. I'll stay where I am."

The porpoise, dived from view but the whale stayed on top of the water.

He was so busily thinking of his looks and of how high he could spout the water over his head, that he didn't see a small boat leave the big boat and row out carefully toward him.

He didn't see the coils of thick rope or the long spear-like thing called a harpoon that was fastened to the rope.

Suddenly he felt a stinging pain in his side. Then he turned and saw the little boat—and the men and the rope and everything.

"Dear me! I believe I'm stabbed," he cried. And he darted away, swimming as hard as he could although he felt very weak.

"I don't know the ocean was so dangerous," he gasped. "I wish I was back in my garden again with the birds and flowers and water lilies. It was so safe! No one ever hurt me. My, but my side hurts. There! I guess I'll have to stop swim."

Suddenly he felt very queer. It seemed as though he lost his senses for a minute. When he came to, there he was back in the Lily Pool again among his friends and the water lilies.

"Oh, my! I've had such a queer dream," he said. "I must have been asleep." And he told them about the ocean and the porpoise and the ship and the sharp thing that stabbed him in the side.

A big blue butterfly was just disappearing over the garden wall. On it were a fairy and two tiny children.

Back to the Fairy Queen's palace they went.

"I think the little fish has learned his lesson," said the Queen. "If you cannot think of any more wishes for me to grant now, I shall take a rest. I find that most wishes are a mistake anyway. I've had to unmake every wish I have granted and it is a waste of time."

"But I've had a fine time and thank you, my dears. Good-bye. Come to see me again soon!" "Simble Toes" took the butterfly and led him away. Silver Wings stooped and took the magic shoes from the children's feet.

And suddenly a clock struck seven. They were in their own beds at home.

Soft Chiffon Fits Anywhere On New Frocks

New York—The head coverings for southern resort wear, of either felt or straw, are of the familiar panama shape with the brim turned sharply up in front and down behind and with the front brim pinned back with a bow or rose of bright velvet ribbon.

Chiffon today is to dress what the utility infolder is to baseball. It can be placed anywhere. On the straight line, slim, plain satin frocks, it is used as a fichu, adding grace to the neck line and a contrasting color note in the costume.

UNITY OF THE ENSEMBLE

Handkerchiefs now are decorative as well as useful accessories. With the new tailored suits they give a needed flare of color as they peep from the pocket. Some are of colored linen with embroidered edges, or of brilliantly printed crepe de chine.

Luminous sheets of light-colored satins are being extensively designed here for evening wear at the Riviera resorts. These are embroidered in crystal and semi-precious stones and trimmed extensively with feathers. Fancy pearl necklaces, now so much in vogue, are designed to match each dress.

BOILING WATER IS DANGEROUS

A baby scalded to death by boiling water left within its reach is all too frequent a news item. In a home where there are young children, pans or kettles of hot water should never be left on the floor or table where they can be tipped. Remember, small children are curious and seldom realize danger.

When it rains in London, they let it rain, and why not? Shops are full of well tailored and attractive top coats in water-proofed materials. The latter include cashmere, wool gabardines, west of England

GOOD FOR LITTLE TUMMIES

Life Savers are the ideal candy for youngsters whose tummies are so easily upset by richer sweets.

Take a few rolls home for that expectant moment when some little feller says: "Daddy, did you bring me anything?"

Safe for little teeth, too. No sticky debris to cause tooth decay.

It is much better to give children the right kind of candy regularly.

Kimberly Five To Play For State Amateur Title

Papermakers Meet Strong Madison Quintet On Friday

Loose, Scheurle, Koll, Cook, Clark, Boettcher and Klundt Picked to Represent District at Racine

Seven star cagers of the Kimberly Clark Co. of Kimberly, accompanied by Clyde Smith, manager, and a host of rooters will leave Friday morning for Racine where they will attempt to bring the Wisconsin amateur basketball championship to the Fox River valley and particularly Kimberly. The trip will be made in cars.

The tournament is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and each year district meets are held in high school circles and the winners, the state's strongest team, compete at Racine or Milwaukee for the state crown. No meet has been held in the Appleton district since four years ago when the strong U. S. Tractor quintet of Menasha coached by Fred Bushey, went to Racine. The Tractor five composed of such stars as Madison, Chappelle, Anderson, Hodden and Wahl, defeated the district's strongest teams including the Black Creek five, Hortonville and Chautau and Fox River Paper Co. but were declared ineligible at Racine because of professionalism.

With no prospects of group of amateur teams strong enough to fight it out in this vicinity, the district meet was dropped. When Kimberly's record and eligible list had been submitted to state authority's this year after looking over the teams of this district, the Papermaker's were asked to represent the district.

Preliminary meets in the other districts closed on Wednesday and the winners play at Racine Friday night. Four games Friday and Saturday nights decide the battle. The first game each night starts at 7 o'clock and the last at 10. Such strong teams as the Regner Droggers, Racine, Madison Y. M. C. A., Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. and Hartford Kissel Kats, make the meets interesting each year.

The Kimberly crew is scheduled to hit one of the hardest teams in the meet the first night when it meets the strong Madison Y. M. C. A. team in the 9 o'clock game. The Capitol City boys have a fine record this year, including victories over the strongest teams in the southern half of the state and teams of University of Wisconsin men.

They will find Kimberly hard to beat if the Papermakers are on. Their record includes victories over the best in the state, having trimmed Co. J of Neenah, Lena American Legion and the Hilbert Home Players. Loose and Koll will play forwards, Cook, center, and Scheurle and Clark, guards, with Boettcher and Klundt in reserve.

KIMBERLY STAR TEAM
These men are all well-known for their fine playing and fight and if they work together as they have this season should have no real chance of "bringing home the bacon." Scheurle and Koll are 1924 Appleton high school stars, where they helped give the Orange its high rating in the conference and at Madison. "Pege" Koll, one of the best shots in the entire valley, was all-tournament forward at the district meet. He can drop ringers from anywhere on the floor. Scheurle, lanky guard is known for his deft, side work against the "big boys." Loose is one of the best-known players of the valley. The work of the big boy especially on floor work and under the basket is always dangerous. Boettcher, Clark and Klundt are vets of the Kimberly five, having seen five seasons in the mill's uniforms and can put up a fight with the best of them. Boettcher is an old Orange all-around star. "Ossy" Cook was star of the Lawrence fives for the last three years, besides winning his letter in track and football. His appearance pepes up the team. This was shown when the team dropped three straight games when he was on the sick list. The team should go into the finals at Racine.

MIDDLEWEIGHT TITLE OF STATE AT STAKE ON FRIDAY

Waupaca—Local wrestling promoters are to stage a match for the state middleweight championship at the armory Saturday night, March 21 when Pat McIntosh of Antigo, claimant of the middleweight state title and Hagenschick of LaCrosse, who disputes McIntosh's claim, will wrestle best two out of three with a 2-hour limit. Both men will be within the weight limit and the winner of this battle will have a clear championship title.

Bob McLaughlin and Denn Hiltbard, who wrestled to a 20-minute draw two weeks ago, will fight it out in a 1-hour limit. Admission will be free to ladies and reduced prices will prevail throughout the house. George Murray will referee and Jay Cornwell is to hold the watch. The first preliminary begins at 8:30 and main bout at 9:30.

GREEN BAY ROLLS 639 IN A. B. C. TOURNAMENT

Buffalo—Bill Maynard, Green Bay, was second high in the singles of the A. B. C. tournament here on Tuesday rolling a count of 639. Vann Oss, also of Green Bay, came through with 634 Masse hit 633 and Mike Malouf hit the wood for a score of 625.

Van Teek and Snachmann, also of Green Bay rolled 1,189 for the highest doubles score of the Green Bay contenders.

Dave's Dots And Dashes

Down in Madison they figure Appleton is going to win the state championship at the basketball tournament which opens next Wednesday. A sport writer in the Capitol City delivered himself of that belief a day or two ago, but he based his prediction on a promise that won't stand up. He says Appleton has the same team which came dangerously close to coping last year's title. That's where he is wrong. There have been a number of changes on the Appleton squad, but just the same the Kevin crew may surprise its own supporters and come through with the big win.

Appleton will have something of an advantage in the big meet in that it plays its first game on Wednesday morning. If it wins the scrap with New Glarus it will have plenty of rest before it engages in its second tussle on Thursday.

Wrestling fans are getting quite excited over the wrestling match between Hans Steinke and George Hills here Friday night. This man Steinke is quite some grappler and if George can stay with him it will be generally conceded that he is good. Hills will have his work cut out for him, however, to stick around for any length of time with the formidable German.

Menasha wants baseball this year but isn't quite what it is going to get. The Wisconsin State League has gone bloomy and efforts to organize another wheel (but it have been far from successful. So far as Appleton is concerned, league baseball is finished. Whether Menasha will be able to interest a sufficient number of towns to form a semi-pro league is problematical.

Appleton bowlers have been doing a little thinking of late about bringing the state pin tournament to this city. There are bowlers here who believe that the state tourney can be handled here and that there would be sufficient revenue from the games to pay for the cost of installing the new alleys which would be necessary. It would not be surprising if action were taken along this line.

HUBBARD HOPES TO BREAK JUMP RECORD

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Deifart Hubbard, sensational colored star at the University of Michigan, hopes to re-write one of his fondest ambitions in athletics this season—that is hang up a new record for the running broad jump.

For the past two years the ebony-hued star has endeavored to smash the existing mark. But has always fallen a bit short. On one occasion he leaped 25 feet 1 1/2 inches, which at that time was just an inch and a half behind the world's record, held by Ned Gourdin, one-time Harvard luminary.

Coach Steve Farrell of the Maize and Blue team is of the opinion that Hubbard stands a good chance of establishing a new jump. Moreover, he hopes that the colored lad may even reach the 26-foot figure. The present record is 25 feet 6 inches, and was made by Robert Legendre at the Olympic games last summer.

Hubbard has started practice indoors and appears to be in tip-top form and all set for a great season. His efforts are certain to be watched with interest.

DOUBLE HEADER FEATURES THREE-CUSHION TOURNERY

A double header attraction will feature Thursday night's play in the handicap three-cushion billiard tournament at Bachman and Hantschell Billiard Parlors when N. Verbrick, 25, meets Holman, 15, and E. Verbrick, 21, crosses cues with R. Sell, 10. All of the preceding matches have been extremely interesting, winners taking their games by two and three point margins, and Thursday's games are expected to be even better.

Fourteen boys are entered in the competition and J. Untland and Joyce went into the second round by winning their first round matches on Monday and Tuesday. After the first round is completed the seven winners will meet in the second round, one contestant drawing a bye. The four victors then will meet in the semi-finals, and the finals will conclude the tourney on the next night.

MAY STAR RELIEF HURLER OF OLD LEAGUE LAST YEAR
Orlando—The greatest game finisher in the National League last season was Jackie May of the Reds. May did relief duty often, being called upon to finish 21 fives.

He was in 38 tilts, all told during which he pitched 99 innings. He only worked two complete games, however, and at the end of the campaign showed a record of three victories and as many defeats.

He allowed 104 safe hits and 39 runs, 33 of which were earned. He gave 23 walks and fanned 59 batters, an exceedingly good average.

FORMER LOCAL STAR TO MANAGE MERRILL

Eddie Stumpf to Lead and Play Behind Bat for Northerners in 1925

Eddie Stumpf, former catcher and manager of Appleton State League baseball team, will manage the Merrill independent baseball team and perform behind the bat for the Northerners, this year, according to an announcement from directors of the Merrill team.

The directors had been carrying on negotiations with Stumpf for over a month and feel that his record of past seasons in handling baseball aggregations, more than warranted his selection from a large list of applicants.

Stumpf is recognized as one of the best semi-pro performers in the state and has made an enviable record. During the past ten years of active competition. At the time of Stumpf's acceptance of the contract tendered by the Merrill directors, he stated that he had a complete prospective lineup to start the season with. This to a great extent will eliminate the early scramble for players, as he is in a position to secure men who are more apt to remain throughout the entire of the season.

BLUE TRACK MEN IN FIVE MEETS IN 1925

Athletic Director A. C. Denny of Lawrence college announced Wednesday that five meets will make up the program for the track season this spring. The schedule will open with the interclass meet on May 2 to give Denny a line on his men for intercollegiate competition.

Negotiations have been completed for a dual meet with Oshkosh Normal at Appleton, May 9. The following Saturday Ripon will form the championship team will form the competition.

The Little Five state meet will be held on May 23, probably at Beloit. It was scheduled at Lawrence, but failure to finish the new track will necessitate holding it elsewhere.

The midwest meet will be run off on May 29 and 30 at St. Paul under the auspices of Hamline university. Arrangements are being made to hold the Fox river valley high school track meet again under the auspices of Lawrence this season, probably a week before the state high school meet at Madison on May 25.

The outlook in track at Lawrence is not very cheering as most of the material is green and weather conditions in the spring are usually very unfavorable, coupled with the lack of an indoor track. Eight letter men, including Capt. Wilmer Rehbein, crack half miler, form the nucleus of the squad.

New York—Edmond Mascart, French featherweight, arrived for a boxing campaign which probably will culminate in a title match with Louis "Kid" Kaplan, for the world's featherweight championship.

ORANGE PICKED AS TILTE CONTENDER BY STATE OFFICIALS

Superior, Eau Claire, Neenah and Appleton Look Like Strongest Squads

Madison—With the district tournaments finished, the 16 winners are awaiting the state tournament to be held in the University of Wisconsin gymnasium March 25, 26, 27 and 28.

Among the list of winners are included many new schools that did not have teams at the final tournament last year. Fond du Lac, champion in 1924, lost to Neenah in the final round of the tournament. Wauwatosa, victor in the consolation series last year, was beaten by the strong Waukesha quintet.

Superior, another standby in the final tournaments again will be feared by opponents for the state title. The northern team lost to Fond du Lac in a hard fight for the championship last year. LaCrosse, will be in the final running in the 1925 tournament determined to avenge its defeat by Superior in last season's tournament.

Of the sixteen teams that were at the final meet last year, nine failed in the district tournaments. Rice Lake, Oregon, Wauwatosa, Fond du Lac, Arcadia, Marinette, Eagle River, Janesville, and Platteville failed to qualify for the state tournament.

Wisconsin Rapids, River Falls, Superior, La Crosse, Watertown, Manitowoc and Appleton are the teams that again will appear at Madison March 25-28.

The new teams that appear to be strong though winning their sectional contests are Beloit, New Glarus, Neenah, Manfort, Barron, Eau Claire, Tomahawk, Shawano and Waukesha. Superior, Eau Claire, Appleton and Neenah have excellent records this year and should be the strongest competitors for the state title. Superior has three men back from last year's second place team and is playing good basketball. Eau Claire has won nearly every game this season and is on a par and perhaps stronger than La Crosse. Appleton came through easily in its district and showed decided strength in offensive power. Neenah defeated Fond du Lac in the final game of the Oshkosh tournament.

LOUISVILLE, TOLEDO AND PEORIA AFTER TOURNERY

Buffalo, N. Y.—The entire entry of 17 teams from Louisville, Ky., and one from Lexington are among the five man bowlers competing in the A. B. C. tournament here Thursday. The Louisville delegation arrived Thursday and immediately started a campaign for the 1926 tournament of the American Bowling Congress, Toledo, Ohio, and Peoria, Ill., are other cities seeking the convention next year.

Buffalo bowlers Wednesday placed two scores among the ten leaders, a 1241 total by Dr. Chester Cott and Walter Schnechenderger for fifth position in the two man event and 660 score by Fred Steinwald being the ninth high in the individual competition.

Detroit and New York carried off the honors of the night in the five man events, the gardeners of the former city taking third place with a total of 2,880 and the Dwyer recreation team of New York with 2,861 taking fourth.

Paris—The French Tennis Federation set next week for examination into the British proposal to eliminate tennis from future Olympic games.

Hills And Steinke All Set For Battle Here Friday Night

George Classed as One of World's Ten Best Grapplers of Present Day by Big Time Promoters of Country

Rumors that a banner crowd will be on deck to greet Hans Steinke, German heavyweight champion, when he steps on the mat to grapple George Hills, Wisconsin's favorite, are well-founded. According to the demand for tickets coming from valley and state cities, towns and even hamlets. Records of the matmen show that the demand is warranted. When Steinke landed in this country about a year ago, the natives were skeptical, but in that short time he has thrown the best fellows, one after another, until with the exception of Paavo Nurmi, no foreigner has accomplished what he did in athletics in this country in as short a time.

Steinke is a student of the game and takes no unnecessary chances. He works on his opponents weak spots, waiting for an opportunity to clamp on a telling hold that will give him the match. He specializes on no particular hold and is as prolidient with one as with another. He has been known to grab hold after hold quickly and release them just as quickly to trick an opponent and throw him off guard. His speed allows him to follow up an advantage and stay continually on top of an opponent and he can set a pace that would tire a middleweight. Hans has a headlock as good as Lewis' and a bag full of tricks all his own, many brought from across the sea. He weighs 250 pounds and stands 6 foot, 3 inches, all bone and muscle, and is so great an attraction that large crowds have been turned away wherever he wrestled.

In George Hills he meets a man who is his match in speed and knowledge of holds, if not in weight and has the backing of the local crowd to cheer him on. Superior weight has never seemed to bother George. Hills is no quitter, his gameness having been proved in all of his hardest battles, and will give the fans the best that's in him. If he loses the match, it still will be a great fight and every fan is sure of his money's worth on this bout. George has hit a stride that will make it interesting for lots of the big fellows. Authorities on wrestling who saw him here a few years ago, swear that he is 100 per cent better than ever before and promoters in all of the big cities are keeping him busy lately. He is hooked to meet Jack Sherry, Cleveland tough boy, and Martin Plestina, one of the world's best in a few days. In the words of one of the biggest promoters who is after Hills for a number of finish bouts with the big boys of the game, "I'll take a standing offer of $1,000 that Hills cannot be beaten by ten wrestlers in the world today."

There has been no advance in prices for Appleton's biggest bout and tickets are on sale at Bell's Drug Store and Miller and Rule.

Brussels—The Belgian Tennis Federation voted to maintain tennis in the Olympic games program.

TWO VALLEY QUINTS PLAY IN RIPON MEET

Ripon—Entries have been received from eight of the leading high school quintets in the state in the Ripon inter-sectional cage tournament, starting here on Thursday and ending on Saturday. The tournament, sanctioned by the W. I. A. A., promises to show a classy brand of basketball. The entries include Wauwatosa, Oshkosh, Spooner, Portage, Stevens Point, Ripon, Viroqua and Sheboygan.

The opening game, which will be played Thursday afternoon, will see the strong Wauwatosa and Oshkosh quintets in action. Both teams were runnersup in their district meets last week. Viroqua will clash with Portage in the second afternoon game, while Ripon and Stevens Point and Sheboygan and Spooner will meet in the evening tilts.

A special cup, to be known as the Ripon international tourney trophy, will be awarded to the winner of first place, while nine individual medals will go to the members of the three leading teams. Stothart, Milwaukee Normal, and Wyman, Oshkosh, normal, have been selected as officials. The visiting teams will be housed in the various campus fraternities.

HARGRAVE CALLED BEST N. L. CATCHER BY HENDRICKS

Orlando—He's the best catcher in the National League, probably in the majors," that is the compliment manager Jack Hendricks of the Cincinnati Reds pays "Bubbles" Hargrave.

In predicting a better showing by the Reds, Hendricks is banking strongly on Hargrave. Not only is he a great catcher mechanically but a smart handler of pitchers and a whale of a batter.

KNUTE ROCKNE NAMED KANSAS RELAY OFFICIAL

Lawrence, Kas.—Notre Dame's famous coach, Knute Rockne, will referee the third annual University of Kansas relays in the memorial stadium here April 13. It was announced by Dr. F. O. Alden, director of athletics at the University of Kansas, today.

The Kansas relays, the first major outdoors sports event of this section of the country, are this year attracting a larger list of entrants than last season when more than 100 universities, colleges, preparatory schools and high schools from widely scattered parts of America sent athletes to compete. The program this year includes fifteen relays, races and nine special track and field events.

Does Van Ess actually Grow Hair?

Yes—or money back!

Here's what one enthusiast writes:

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2, 1924
A year ago I was almost bald. I now have a nice growth of hair due to constant use of Van Ess. After trying everything else, without success, I purchased a bottle of Van Ess at Buck & Reynier's.

It gives me great pleasure. Before Van Ess I was told to inform my friends treatment (from photo) that Van Ess has been the cause of restoring my hair.

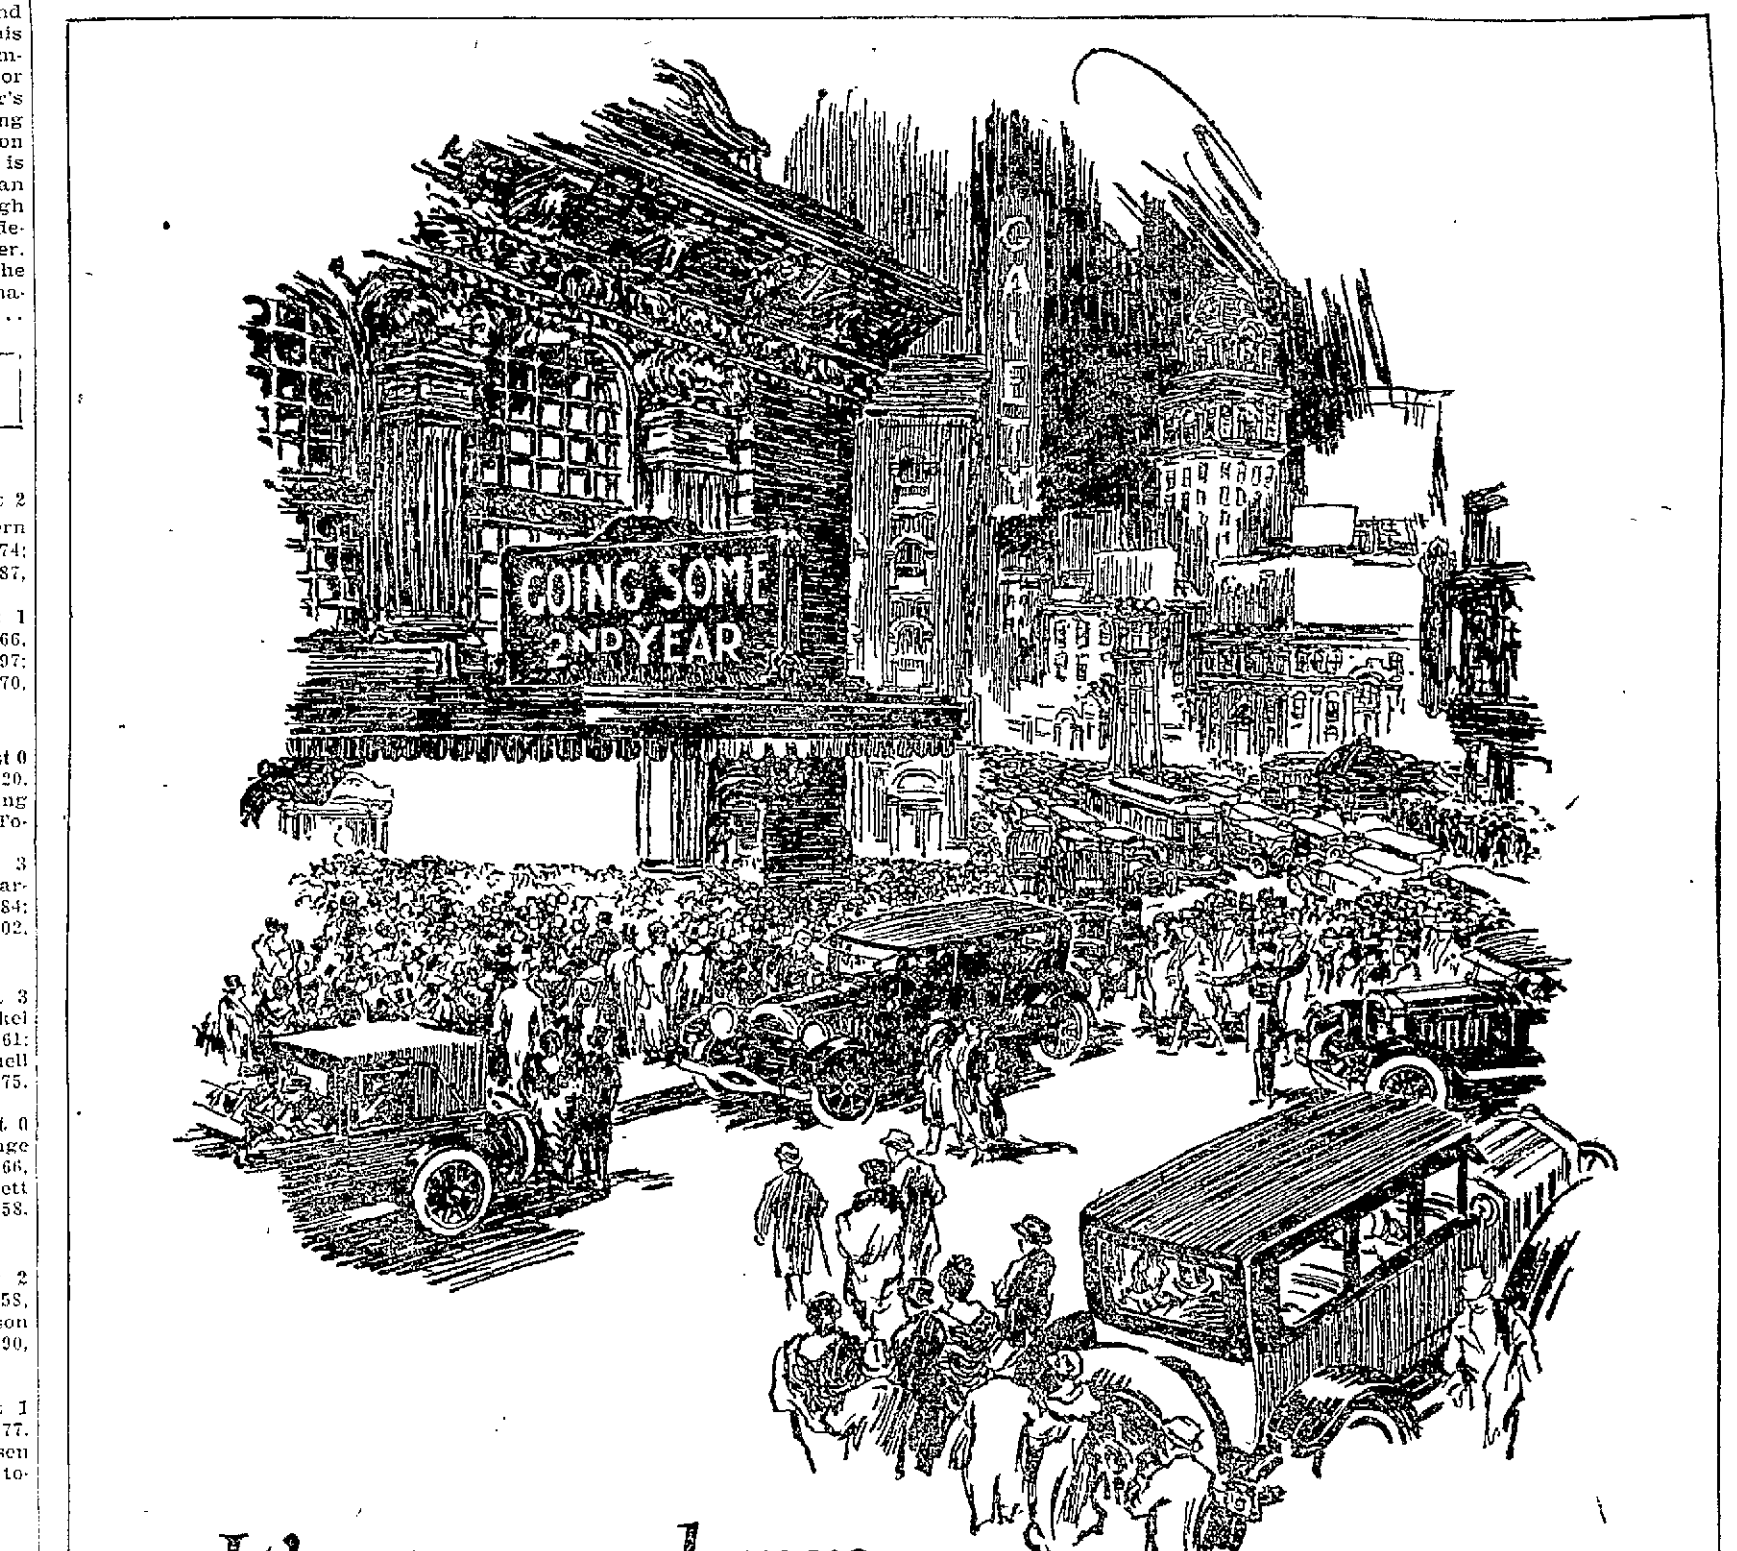

I believe that anyone who uses Van Ess as religiously as I have will be benefited. People with scalp trouble should make Van Ess a daily habit because it keeps the scalp clean, removes dandruff and makes the hair feel good.

Yours truly,

CITIES PILE ON TAXES FASTER THAN U. S. REDUCES THEM

Coolidge Economy Doesn't Go Far Toward Taking Off Tax Burden

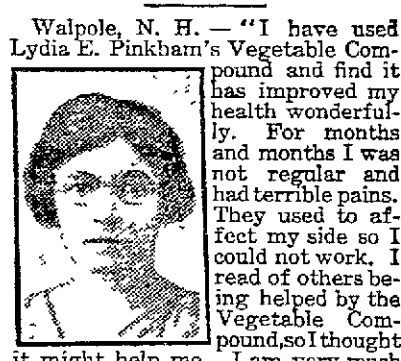

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington, April 10.—Disbursements President Coolidge's...
Such, however, isn't the case. The national debt is being whittled down, too.
But state, county and city taxation is increasing—fast. It is increasing faster than federal taxation can be reduced.
It wouldn't be so bad if the money were being used to pay off old state, county and city debts. However, this isn't the case.

NOT PAYING WAY
States, counties and cities aren't even paying their way as they go along. The state's debts are increasing faster than their taxes are, and counties' and cities' debts are increasing nearly as fast.
In 1902 state, county and city taxes averaged $9.22 per capita throughout the United States. In 1922 the average was $22.23. The increase continued steadily during the entire 20 years, amounting, at the end of that time, to nearly 250 per cent.
The increase was not uniform in all the states, but it was universal—not one single state but had higher taxes in 1922 than in 1902.
Between 1902 and 1922 state debts increased nearly 340 per cent. Counties and cities did not borrow quite so heavily. The average of all three in indebtedness—state, county and city—was $22.73 in 1902 and $78.90 in 1922, or, a fraction under 338 per cent.

TAX BURDEN GROWS
The nation's total of state, county and city debts in 1922 was $3,914,209,000.
In other words, on an average,

MRS. FULLER MADE STRONG

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped when Other Medicines Failed

Walpole, N. H. — "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it has improved my health wonderfully. For months and months I was not regular and had terrible pains. They used to affect my side so I could not work. I read of others being helped by the Vegetable Compound, so I thought it might help me. I am very much better now, strong enough to do my own housework, and have two dear babies to care for besides. I tried other medicines before taking the Vegetable Compound, but I was never treated for my troubles. I speak highly of the Vegetable Compound to my friends and recommend it to any woman for rundown and nervous condition." — Mrs. T. H. FULLER, Walpole, New Hampshire.
Over 200,000 women have so far replied to our question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"
98 out of every 100 of the replies say "Yes," and because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women it should help you

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole
That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.
Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.
As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, does the work without blister. Just rub it on with your finger-tips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.
To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c in jars and tubes.
MUSTEROLE
BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

DON'T FORGET TO PUT DIRECTIONAL PREFIXES ON APPLETON ADDRESSES

Considerable delay is caused in mail deliveries by the fact that addressors neglect to place directional prefixes before addresses here, according to William H. Zuehlke, postmaster. Almost every street in Appleton is divided in two directions, north and south, or east and west, and in each part the street numbers are practically identical. Therefore, if the address on a letter neglects to specify whether the mail goes to north or south State st., the carrier may deliver it to the proper number but in the wrong section of the street. Postmaster Zuehlke urges that greater care be exercised in writing addresses in order to facilitate deliveries.

FOND DU LAC COMPANY GETS CHURCH CONTRACT

Contract to build St. Peter school at Fond du Lac Saturday was awarded to the Hutter Construction Co. of Fond du Lac, whose bid was $73,734. The Appleton Construction Co.'s bid of $51,187 was third lowest. Among other bidders were the Kaukauna Construction Co. and Bartleson and Ness of Green Bay.

each man, woman and child in the United States pays $32.23 in state, county and city taxes yearly and is in debt $79.90 on the states', counties' and cities' account.

The figures are the Treasury Department's. Exact amounts are not yet available later than 1922, but enough have been gathered to show that the increase—in both indebtedness and taxation—is still going on.
Obviously, if states, counties and cities are going to pile their taxes or faster than President Coolidge can take federal taxes off, the more the president reduces, the more the taxpayers will have to pay. That's the situation now.

COLLEGE DEBATORS FACE HARD TESTS

Pick of Lawrence Speakers Will Make Long Tour Through West

Although the official season in Wisconsin collegiate debating circles is over, a Lawrence team will face a real test in competition with several leading universities and colleges when a Lawrence negative team with Prof. Orr, debate coach, makes the long western trip the last of March and the beginning of April.
This season Wisconsin college debates were non-decision affairs, and no definite value by the judgment of picked judges were placed upon the competing teams. The debates on the coming trip will be decision meets, as the western schools have not adopted the non-decision system, and the Lawrence team will be tested on the basis of wins and losses.
The men who will make the trip are the pick of Lawrence debaters, all experienced speakers. Willard Henock, who has been the longest at Lawrence, came here from Washington high school in Milwaukee. He represented that school in an extensive speaking contest here in 1921 and as winner of first place received a scholarship which brought him to Lawrence. It is an interesting coincidence that Willard Bird, who will

STILL NO CLEWS TO MISSING SUTTON BOY

Statewide search for Scott Sutton, eleven old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Sutton, 5099 W. Fourth St., who disappeared Feb. 6, has brought no new clues thus far, according to Appleton police. Authorities in Milwaukee and other Wisconsin cities are picking up all outside boys in attempt to find Sutton, and several days ago Milwaukee police held several Appleton youths who were visiting in the Green City.
Last year, according to police, Sutton was picked up on his way to Montana.

Chester Seftenberg, the third speaker who will make the trip, had experience in the Oshkosh high school and Oshkosh normal school before coming to Lawrence. This is his second year in Lawrence debate work and he is a team leader this year. Although speaking on the affirmative team, his work warranted his being switched to the negative for this trip. The men are all juniors in college, and all expect to return next year. This trip will round out their work and develop them for another big year for Lawrence.

The New Spring Hats
We have at present (we say at present because they are bound to go like hot cakes) an unusually good showing of the new Knapp-Feit Hats for spring.
The featherweight Cross Country model coming in tiffen grey and English pearl, earns its names by its look of jaunty carelessness—the reason why it will be one of the most popular selling hats this spring.
Then there is the Cavanaugh Edge Model, the Snap Bunn Model, and the featherweight silk finish model—all of them appropriate for spring. Some day not so far away we are going to devote one whole ad to these hats, because we believe they are worth telling you about. But if you really want to know about them don't wait—drop in now.
Knap Feits, $6 to $10, others as low as $3.
